340 frequently do not create good will with litigants, the accused,
341 the convicted, and their associates and families, thus making
342 the judicial assistants, and their spouses and children, targets
343 for acts of revenge. This risk continues after judicial 344 assistants complete their public service. Disgruntled 345 individuals may wait to commit an act of revenge until the 346 employment of a judicial assistant ends. If such identifying and 347 location information were released, the safety of current or 348 former judicial assistants and their spouses and children could 349 be seriously jeopardized. For these reasons, the Legislature
350 finds that it is a public necessity that such information be
