

House Bill 1186

By: Representatives Boddie of the 62nd, Kendrick of the 93rd, Williams of the 168th, Gilliard of the 162nd, Gordon of the 163rd, and others

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Part 3 of Article 6 of Chapter 7 of Title 17 of the Official Code of Georgia
2 Annotated, relating to change of venue, so as to provide for a motion for a change of venue 3 by the prosecuting attorney in certain cases; to provide for procedures; to provide for related 4 matters; to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

6 style="text-align:center">SECTION 1.

7 Part 3 of Article 6 of Chapter 7 of Title 17 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
8 relating to change of venue, is amended by revising paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of Code
9 Section 17-7-150, relating to procedures for change of venue, transfer of case, and appeal 10 from denial of change of venue, as follows:

11 "(a)(1)(A) The defendant, in any criminal case in which a trial by jury is provided, may 12 move in writing for a change of venue, whenever, in the defendant's or defense 13 counsel's judgment, an impartial jury cannot be obtained in the county where the crime 14 is alleged to have been committed. Upon the hearing of the motion, it shall not be 15 necessary to examine all persons in the county liable to serve on juries, but the judge 16 shall hear evidence by affidavit or oral testimony in support of or against the motion.
17 If, from the evidence submitted, the judge is satisfied that an impartial jury cannot be 18 obtained to try the case, the judge shall grant a change in ~~venue~~, the venue. The judge 19 shall transfer the case to any county that may be agreed upon by the prosecuting 20 attorney and the defendant or the defense counsel, to be tried in the county agreed upon.
21 The judge has the discretion to reject any county agreed upon; if a county is not thus 22 agreed upon, or if the judge, in the exercise of discretion, rejects a county agreed upon, 23 the judge shall select such county as in the judge's judgment will afford a fair and 24 impartial jury to try the case and have it transferred accordingly.

25 (B) The prosecuting attorney, in any criminal case in which a trial by jury is provided, 26 may move in writing for a change of venue, whenever, in such prosecuting attorney's 27 judgment, an impartial jury cannot be obtained in the county where the crime is alleged 28 to have been committed if:

29 (i) A previous prosecuting attorney has been removed from the case for cause; or 30 (ii) A local government official has publicly released information prejudicial to the 31 administration of justice which has the potential to have tainted the local jury pool.

32 Upon the hearing of the motion, it shall not be necessary to examine all persons in the 33 county liable to serve on juries, but the judge shall hear evidence by affidavit or oral 34 testimony in support of or against the motion. If, from the evidence submitted, the 35 judge is satisfied that an impartial jury cannot be obtained to try the case, the judge 36 shall grant a change in venue. The judge shall transfer the case to any county that may 37 be agreed upon by the requesting prosecuting attorney and the defendant or the defense 38 counsel and the case shall be tried in the county agreed upon. The judge has the 39 discretion to reject any county agreed upon; if a county is not thus agreed upon, or if 40 the judge, in the exercise of discretion, rejects a county agreed upon, the judge shall 41 select such county as in the judge's judgment will afford a fair and impartial jury to try 42 the case and have it transferred accordingly."

43 SECTION 2.

44 This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law 45 without such approval.

46 SECTION 3.

47 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
