76 the vesting of or eligibility for any pension benefits of a public officer.

77 (g)(1) Although disfavored by the General Assembly, a municipal or county governing 78 authority or consolidated government may choose to have the terms of office of members 79 of such governing authority begin on January 1 immediately following the date of such 80 member's election by adopting a resolution or ordinance in accordance with the 81 provisions of this subsection. In such event, the provisions of subsections (b), (c), and 82 (d) of this Code section shall not be applicable to such governing authority or 83 consolidated government and the terms of office of the members of such governing 84 authority or consolidated government shall begin on January 1 immediately following the 85 election of such members.

86 (2) In order to make the choice provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection, the 87 governing authority or consolidated government shall give notice containing a synopsis 88 of the proposed resolution or ordinance by publishing such notice in the official organ of 89 the county or municipality once a week for three weeks within a period of 60 days 90 immediately preceding its final adoption. The notice shall state that a copy of the 91 proposed resolution or ordinance is on file in the office of the county clerk or the 92 recording officer of the municipal governing authority or consolidated government, as 93 appropriate, and in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county for the 94 purpose of examination and inspection by the public. Such resolution or ordinance shall 95 not become effective unless a public hearing is conducted on the proposed resolution or 96 ordinance and such proposed resolution or ordinance is duly adopted at two regular 97 consecutive meetings of the governing authority or consolidated government, not less 98 than seven nor more than 60 days apart, and until a copy of the resolution or ordinance,
99 a copy of the required notice of publication, and an affidavit of a duly authorized 100 representative of the newspaper in which the notice was published, to the effect that the

101 notice has been published as provided in this subsection, has been filed with the Secretary
102 of State and in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county."
