

House Resolution 3

By: Representative Efstrotation of the 104th

A RESOLUTION

1 Relative to officials, employees, and committees in the House of Representatives; and for 2 other purposes.

3 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that the following
4 provisions shall be in effect during the 2023-2024 biennium of the General Assembly unless 5 and until otherwise provided for by resolution of the House:

PART 1*SECTION 1-1.

8 (a) Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the House of 9 Representatives, the Speaker of the House is authorized to employ on behalf of the House
10 of Representatives a sergeant-at-arms, a postmaster or postmistress, assistant postmasters or 11 assistant postmistresses, assistant doorkeepers, pages, aides, secretaries, stenographers, 12 typists, clerks, porters, court reporters, consultants, and other necessary personnel; and the 13 Speaker is authorized to provide offices for staff services for the House of Representatives
14 and to employ personnel for said offices. The numbers and compensation of personnel so 15 employed pursuant to this section shall be fixed by the Speaker within the limitations of 16 funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the House of Representatives.

17 Personnel employed pursuant to this section may be employed on a permanent or temporary 18 basis and on a part-time or full-time basis, as may be determined by the Speaker. The 19 assignment and duties of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be as determined
20 by the Speaker; and any such personnel may be assigned to House officers, committees,
21 committee officers, caucuses, and caucus officers as deemed appropriate by the Speaker,
22 including without limitation assignment of aides to the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority
23 Leader, and the Minority Leader.

24 (b) By agreement with the appropriate officer or officers of the Senate, the Speaker of the 25 House may authorize the employment of joint staff and the establishment of joint offices of 26 the General Assembly.

27 SECTION 1-2.

28 The Speaker is also authorized to secure the services of chaplains and interns and provide 29 expense reimbursement allowances for them within the limitations of funds appropriated or 30 otherwise available.

31 SECTION 1-3.

32 The Doorkeeper of the House and the Messenger of the House, who are elected by the 33 House, shall be compensated in an amount to be fixed by the Speaker of the House.

34 PART 2

35 SECTION 2-1.

36 Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the Clerk of the 37 House's Office, the Clerk of the House is authorized to employ for the Clerk's office assistant 38 clerks, reading clerks, calendar clerks, journal clerks, secretaries, copy readers, typists,
39 Multilith operators, Xerox operators, collator operators, porter-machinists, roll-call operators,

40 clerical assistants, terminal operators, camera operators, supply and mail clerks, document 41 distributors, audio operators, porters, personnel to distribute bills and other materials for 42 members, and other necessary personnel. The numbers and compensation of personnel
43 employed pursuant to this section shall be fixed by the Clerk within the limitations of funds
44 appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the Clerk of the House's Office.
45 Personnel employed pursuant to this section may be employed on a permanent or temporary 46 basis and on a part-time or full-time basis, as may be determined by the Clerk. The 47 assignment and duties of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be as determined
48 by the Clerk.

49 SECTION 2-2.

50 Pursuant to the provisions of Code Section 28-3-23 of the Official Code of Georgia
51 Annotated, the annual salary of the Clerk of the House shall be as determined by the Speaker.
52 In addition to that amount, the Clerk shall also receive the same percentage salary increase 53 provided in the General Appropriations Act when granted to other employees of the 54 legislative branch of state government. During the Clerk's tenure of office, he or she may,
55 at the discretion of the Speaker, also receive the same expense allowance and the same
56 mileage allowance or travel allowance as received by members of the General Assembly for 57 each day of service rendered by the Clerk.

58 PART 3

59 SECTION 3-1.

60 Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of 61 the Speaker of the House's Office, the Speaker of the House is authorized to employ interns,
62 aides, secretaries, stenographers, typists, consultants, and other necessary personnel. The 63 numbers and compensation of personnel employed pursuant to this section shall be fixed by

64 the Speaker within the limitations of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the 65 operation of the Speaker of the House's Office. Personnel employed pursuant to this section 66 may be employed on a permanent or temporary basis and on a part-time or full-time basis as 67 may be determined by the Speaker. The assignment and duties of personnel employed 68 pursuant to this section shall be as determined by the Speaker.

69 PART 4

70 SECTION 4-1.

71 During any day or period of time during which the General Assembly is not in session,
72 including without limitation any day or period of adjournment during a regular or special
73 session, each of the following officers shall be a committee of one for each day spent on 74 official business: the Speaker of the House, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader,
75 the Majority Whip, the Minority Leader, the Minority Whip, and the Administration Floor
76 Leaders. For each such day spent on official business, each of such officers shall receive the 77 expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for members of interim
78 committees.

79 SECTION 4-2.

80 (a) During any day or period of time during which the General Assembly is not in session,
81 including without limitation any day or period of adjournment during a regular or special
82 session, each member of the House of Representatives is designated as a committee of one
83 for the purpose of carrying out legislative duties only within the State of Georgia. Subject
84 to any limits established pursuant to Section 5-3 of this resolution, for each such day of 85 service, each member shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized 86 by law for legislative members of interim legislative committees.

87 (b) In addition to the days provided for in subsection (a) of this section and without counting
88 toward the limit specified in said subsection (a), each member of the House is designated as 89 a committee of one for the purpose of carrying out legislative duties on any weekday which:
90 (1) is a one-day recess or adjournment during a regular session; and (2) occurs after Monday
91 and prior to Friday. For each such day of service, each member shall receive the expense and 92 travel allowances (not including mileage which shall be covered by the weekly round trip) 93 for legislative members of interim legislative committees, if such member has engaged in 94 legislative business on that day, but not otherwise.

95 (c) In addition to the days provided for in subsection (a) of this section and without counting
96 toward the limit specified in said subsection (a), each member of the House is designated as
97 a committee of one for the purpose of attending or responding to any legal matter directly
98 related to his or her legislative duties. For each such day of service or portion thereof, each 99 member shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for 100 legislative members of interim legislative committees. The provisions of this subsection
101 shall also apply to former members and former staff of the House who are attending or 102 responding to any legal matter based on his or her service after the end of his or her term.

103

SECTION 4-3.

104 Pursuant to the provisions of law, in addition to any other compensation they receive as 105 members of the General Assembly, the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader shall 106 receive an amount of $2,400.00 per annum as salary, to be paid in equal monthly or 107 semimonthly installments beginning on the first day of the month following the certification
108 by the caucus of any such election. The Administration Floor Leaders each shall receive an 109 amount of $1,200.00 per annum as salary, to be paid in equal monthly or semimonthly
110 installments. Prior to serving as an Administration Floor Leader, a Representative must be 111 certified as such by the Governor in writing to the Speaker of the House and the Clerk of the 112 House.

113

PART 5

114

SECTION 5-1.

115 During any period or day of adjournment during a regular or special session, the Speaker is 116 empowered to give authorization for standing committees of the House and such other 117 committees as the Speaker might create to remain at the Capitol during any such period of 118 time for the purpose of considering and studying proposed legislation and other matters.
119 Members of such committees as shall be designated by the Speaker to remain at the Capitol 120 shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for members of 121 interim committees.

122

SECTION 5-2.

123 The Speaker is authorized to appoint committees from the members of the House to serve 124 as interim legislative study committees and for the purpose of performing such duties as the 125 Speaker shall deem necessary. Such committees are authorized to serve during the interim,
126 and the members thereof shall receive the expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized 127 by law for legislative members of interim legislative committees. The Speaker shall 128 designate the chairperson of any such committee and shall prescribe the time for which any 129 such committee is authorized to function. The Speaker is authorized to extend the time
130 allowed for any committee, whether the committee is created by resolution or by the Speaker.
131 The Speaker is authorized to designate standing committees or any subcommittee thereof to 132 function during the interim for the purpose of performing such duties as the Speaker shall 133 deem necessary. The members of any such committee or subcommittee shall receive the 134 expense, mileage, and travel allowances authorized by law for legislative members of interim
135 legislative committees.

136 SECTION 5-3.

137 The Speaker shall be authorized to set limits on the number of days per year that a member
138 shall receive the allowances authorized in Sections 4-2 (committee of one) and 5-2
139 (committee meetings during interim) of this resolution. For this purpose a year shall begin 140 on the opening day of a regular session and end on the day prior to the opening day of the 141 next regular session.

142 PART 6

143 SECTION 6-1.

144 The funds necessary to carry out the provisions of Parts 1, 4, and 5 of this resolution shall 145 come from funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the House of 146 Representatives except that funds for any joint staff or joint offices under subsection (b) of 147 Section 1-1 of this resolution shall come from ancillary funds of the General Assembly. The 148 funds necessary to carry out the provisions of Part 2 of this resolution shall come from funds
149 appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the Clerk of the House's Office. The
150 funds necessary to carry out the provisions of Part 3 of this resolution shall come from funds
151 appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the Speaker of the House's Office.

152 SECTION 6-2.

153 Any personnel employed pursuant to this resolution shall serve at the pleasure of the
154 appointing authority, and any such personnel may be discharged by the appointing authority 155 with or without cause.

156 SECTION 6-3.

157 This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by the House of 158 Representatives.
