BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

7 Code Section 48-7A-3 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to claiming and 8 allowing low-income tax credits, is amended by revising subsections (a) and (c) as follows: 9 "(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this Code section, each resident 10 taxpayer who files an individual income tax return for a taxable year and who is not 11 claimed or is not otherwise eligible to be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer for 12 federal or Georgia individual income tax purposes may claim a tax credit against the 13 resident taxpayer's individual income tax liability for the taxable year for which the individual income tax return is being filed; provided, however, that: 14 15 (1) A husband and wife filing a joint return shall each be deemed a dependent for 16 purposes of such joint return; and (2) A husband and wife filing separate returns for a taxable year for which a joint return 17 18 could have been filed by them shall claim only the tax credit to which they would have 19 been entitled had a joint return been filed -; and 20 (3) A resident individual who has no income or no income taxable under Chapter 7 of 21 this title and who is not claimed or is not otherwise eligible to be claimed as a dependent 22 by a taxpayer for federal or Georgia individual income tax purposes may also claim a tax credit as set forth in this Code section." 23 "(c) The tax credit claimed by a resident taxpayer pursuant to this Code section shall be 24

25 deductible from the resident taxpayer's individual income tax liability, if any, for the tax year in which it is properly claimed; provided, however, that in no event shall the total 26

amount of the tax credit under this Code section for a taxable year exceed the taxpayer's 27

28	income tax liability. Any unused credit amount shall not be allowed to be carried forward
29	to the taxpayer's succeeding years' tax liability. No such credit shall be allowed the
30	taxpayer against prior years' tax liability. In the event the tax credit claimed by a resident
31	taxpayer exceeds the amount of income tax payment due from the resident taxpayer, the
32	excess of the credit over payments due shall be refunded to the resident taxpayer, provided
33	that a tax credit properly claimed by a resident individual who has no income tax liability
34	shall be paid to the resident individual; provided, further, that no refunds or payment on
35	account of the tax credit allowed by this Code section shall be made for amounts less than
36	$1.00."
37	SECTION 2.
38	This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2015, and shall be applicable to all taxable years
20

39 beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

40 SECTION 3.

41 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
