SECTION 3.

Said chapter is further amended by revising subsections (b) through (c.1) of Code Section 17-6-72, relating to conditions not warranting forfeiture of bond for failure to appear, as follows:

31 "(b) No judgment shall be rendered on a forfeiture of any appearance bond if it is shown 32 to the satisfaction of the court that the principal on the bond was prevented from attending 33 because he or she was detained by reason of arrest, sentence, or confinement in a penal 34 institution or jail in the State of Georgia, or so detained in another jurisdiction, or because 35 he or she was involuntarily confined or detained pursuant to court order in a mental 36 institution in the State of Georgia or in another jurisdiction. An official written notice of 37 the holding institution in which the principal is being detained or confined shall be 38 considered proof of the principal's detention or confinement and such. Such notice may 39 be sent from the holding institution by mail or e-mail or delivered by hand or by facsimile 40 machine. Upon the presentation of such written notice to the clerk of the proper court, the 41 prosecuting attorney, and the sheriff or other law enforcement officer having jurisdiction over the case, along with a letter of intent to pay all costs of returning the principal to the 42 43 jurisdiction of the court, such notice and letter shall serve as the surety's request for a 44 detainer or hold to be placed on the principal. Should there be a failure to place a detainer 45 or hold within ten business days of the surety's service of a detainer or hold request, and 46 after such presentation of such notice and letter of intent to pay costs, the surety shall then 47 be relieved of the liability for the appearance bond without further order of the court.

48 (c) No judgment shall be rendered on a forfeiture of any appearance bond if it is shown to 49 the satisfaction of the court that prior to the entry of the judgment on the forfeiture the principal on the bond is in the custody of the sheriff or other responsible law enforcement 50 51 agency. An official written notice of the holding institution in which the principal is being 52 detained or confined shall be considered proof of the principal's detention or confinement and such. Such notice may be sent from the holding institution by mail or e-mail or 53 delivered by hand or by facsimile machine. Upon presentation of such written notice to the 54 55 clerk of the proper court, the prosecuting attorney, and the sheriff or other law enforcement officer having jurisdiction over the case along with a letter of intent to pay all costs of 56 returning the principal to the jurisdiction of the court, such notice and letter shall serve as 57 58 the surety's request for a detainer or hold to be placed against the principal. Should there 59 be a failure to place a detainer or hold within ten business days of the surety's service of a detainer or hold request, and after presentation of such notice and letter of intent to pay 60 61 costs, the surety shall then be relieved of the liability for the appearance bond without 62 further order of the court.

- 63 (c.1) No judgment shall be rendered on a forfeiture of any appearance bond if it is shown
- 64 to the satisfaction of the court that the principal on the bond was prevented from attending
- 65 because he or she was deported or removed from the United States by federal authorities.
- 66 Official documentation An official written notice of such deportation from a federal official
- 67 or agency shall be considered proof of the principal's deportation or removal. Such
- 68 documentation may be delivered by mail or e-mail or delivered by hand or by facsimile
- 69 machine."
