

Senate Resolution 1019

By: Senators McKoon of the 29th, Parent of the 42nd and Crane of the 28th

A RESOLUTION

1 Creating the Senate Study Committee on Legislative and Congressional Redistricting; and 2 for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, it is incumbent upon the states to redistrict their legislatures and Congressional 4 delegations in the year following the release of the results of the decennial census; and

5 WHEREAS, in many states, this process has resulted in highly factionalized, partisan map 6 drawing that produces crazy quilt districts and increases confusion among citizens over 7 where their districts are located and who represents them; and

8 WHEREAS, some states have developed methods for redistricting their legislatures and 9 Congressional delegations to minimize this problem by using independent, nonpartisan 10 commissions to implement redistricting or to recommend redistricting plans to the legislature 11 for action; and

12 WHEREAS, dissatisfaction with the current legislative and Congressional redistricting
13 process in Georgia has been expressed by many of our citizens as well as the legislators 14 affected by the process; and

15 WHEREAS, it would be beneficial to the State of Georgia to consider alternative methods
16 for redistricting in Georgia.
