

Senate Resolution 236

By: Senators Miller of the 49th, Carter of the 1st, Mullis of the 53rd and Jackson of the 2nd

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring and celebrating the 100th birthday of Rosemary Schwarz Lynch; and for other 2 purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Rosemary Schwarz Lynch was born on January 17, 1913, in Savannah,
4 Georgia, the beloved daughter of Judge John Edward Schwarz and Florence McDermott 5 Schwarz; and

6 WHEREAS, she graduated from Savannah High School and received secretarial training at 7 Marion Academy which she utilized professionally for more than 35 years; and

8 WHEREAS, she married William J. Lynch in 1939 and their union blessed them with one 9 cherished son, three remarkable daughters, nine beloved grandchildren, and 11 precious 10 great-grandchildren; and

11 WHEREAS, a woman of deep and abiding faith, Mrs. Lynch has been an active volunteer 12 at the Catholic church and school her children attended, serving as president of the Home and 13 School and president of the Catholic Women's Club; and 14 WHEREAS, Mrs. Lynch is a model citizen who actively educates herself on civic and 15 political issues and proudly casts her vote in every election; and

16 WHEREAS, this genteel Southern lady will gather with family to celebrate her centennial 17 birthday in Savannah; and

18 WHEREAS, she is a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation for 19 integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness, and by the example she has made of her life, 20 she makes this world a better place in which to live, and it is only fitting and proper that she 21 be appropriately recognized during this very special and memorable time of her life.

22 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body 23 join in commending Rosemary Schwarz Lynch on the occasion of her 100th birthday and 24 wishing her many more years of happiness.

25 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 26 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Rosemary Schwarz Lynch.
