

Senate Resolution 256

By: Senator Albers of the 56th

A RESOLUTION

1 Congratulating and commending the Centennial High School Model United Nations team
2 on its national and state achievements; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Model United Nations is an opportunity for students to step into the shoes of 4 ambassadors from United Nations member states to debate current issues on the 5 organization's vast agenda; and

6 WHEREAS, these student ambassadors must draft resolutions, plot strategy, negotiate with 7 supporters and adversaries, resolve conflicts, and intensely navigate the rules of procedure 8 of the United Nations, as applied in the United Nations bodies, all in the interest of 9 mobilizing "international cooperation" to resolve problems that affect almost every country 10 on Earth; and

11 WHEREAS, there are numerous competitions around the world for students to showcase 12 their skills and compete against each other; and

13 WHEREAS, the Harvard Model United Nations competition is the oldest, largest, and most 14 prestigious United Nations simulation for high school students held in the United States; and

15 WHEREAS, Centennial High School team members Eric Beeler, Monica Bhatia, Trisha
16 Dalapati, Nikki Frieman, Brooke Gillman, Anna Mazzuckelli, Caroline McCall, Anna 17 Squires, Ken Taylor, and Jenny Wang competed against over 3,000 students from around the 18 world at the Harvard Model United Nations competition; and

19 WHEREAS, the Centennial High School delegation placed first in this prestigious 20 international competition; and

21 WHEREAS, the following members also took individual honors: Eric Beeler and Anna
22 Mazzuckelli won Best Delegate awards; and Monica Bhatia, Trisha Dalapati, Nikki Frieman, 23 and Caroline McCall received Honorable Mention awards; and

24 WHEREAS, Centennial High School team members Ben Bradley, Ellie Bramel, Nate
25 Bramel, Juan Fonseca, Sarah Hanson, Brittany Helliard, Adrian Hofer, Erin Hoffer, Ryann
26 Khalil, Hannah Kitzmiller, Dasha Kolpakova, Sarah Maitland, Erin McCall, Jacob 27 McConaghie, Chris Robb, Mateen Saki, Sohil Shyamsundar, Austin Skorb, Emma Smith, 28 Tim Taylor, Jake Truax, and Nikhil Vallahhaneni competed against over 300 students at the 29 University of Georgia Model United Nations Conference; and

30 WHEREAS, the Centennial High School delegation placed first in this prestigious regional 31 competition; and

32 WHEREAS, the following members also took individual honors: Ben Bradley, Nate Bramel, 33 Sarah Hanson, Brittany Helliard, Hannah Kitzmiller, Jacob McConaghie, and Nikhil
34 Vallahhaneni received Distinguished Delegate awards; Nate Bramel, Juan Fonseca, Hannah
35 Kitzmiller, and Emma Smith received Best Position Paper awards; Emma Smith received 36 Best Delegate award; and Juan Fonseca received an Honorable Mention award; and

37 WHEREAS, these achievements are the result of rigorous academic study and training and 38 the leadership of the team's faculty advisors, Dr. Eric Medwed and Mr. Chad Hoge; and 39 WHEREAS, these achievements showcase the exemplary abilities of Georgia students.

40 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
41 congratulate the Centennial High School Model United Nations team on its exceptional 42 accomplishments and meritorious victories, commend the team members on being 43 outstanding representatives of the students of the State of Georgia, and extend their most 44 sincere wishes for the team's future success.

45 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 46 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Centennial High School.
