156 Georgian be appropriately recognized by dedicating a road in his honor.

PART VIII

158 WHEREAS, Mr. John D. Stephens may be best known for his long and accomplished career 159 in construction, real estate, banking, and waste management, but he has also made his 160 mark on the civic community of the Atlanta region; and

161 WHEREAS, in 2000, a lifetime in the contracting business led Mr. Stephens to take on what 162 may be his legacy project - the construction of the fifth runway of the world's busiest airport
163 at Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport; and

164 WHEREAS, needing 17 million cubic yards of fill to build up the runway, he and his three 165 sons, Mike, Mark, and Mitch, formed Stephens MDS LP and acquired 485 acres of property 166 adjacent to the airport; and

167 WHEREAS, to complete this mammoth project, the company built a four-mile overland 168 conveyor system that crossed streams and interstate highways and, over a two-year period, 169 moved enough dirt and rock to fill the Georgia Dome six times; and

170 WHEREAS, the conveyor system was reliable and cost efficient and hailed for limiting the 171 project's impact on the environment; and

172 WHEREAS, as that project neared completion, Mr. Stephens recognized that the residential 173 and commercial development trends in the region would produce a demand for a sustainable 174 waste management facility, so he opened a construction and demolition disposal facility on 175 the very land from which he borrowed fill for the runway project; and

176 WHEREAS, by 2005, Mr. Stephens had organized Stephens Rock and Dirt, Inc., an on-site
177 recycling operation that accepts soil, concrete, and other inert materials which are processed 178 and resold as raw materials, thereby preserving precious landfill space; and

179 WHEREAS, Stephens MDS continues to provide dirt and aggregate rock fill to the City of 180 Atlanta for ongoing construction at the world's busiest airport, Hartsfield-Jackson 181 International Airport; and

182 WHEREAS, his leadership and guidance have been instrumental to numerous organizations, 183 including on the Board of Trustees of Georgia Gwinnett College, the Board of Directors of

184 the Gwinnett County Chamber of Commerce, the Georgia Utility Contractors Association, 185 and the Georgia Board of Industry, Trade, and Tourism; and

186 WHEREAS, he has been recognized with numerous honors and accolades, including the 187 Citizen of the Year Award in 2006, the Gwinnett Clean and Beautiful Environmental Legacy
188 Award in 2007, and the naming of the Gwinnett County Chamber of Commerce's Education 189 Center in his honor; and

190 WHEREAS, Mr. Stephens and his wife, Beverly, reside in Snellville, Georgia, where they 191 enjoy their five children and nine grandchildren and are active supporters of many charitable 192 causes, including the American Heart Association, American Cancer Society, Boy Scouts of 193 America, Hi-Hope Service Center in Lawrenceville, and Gwinnett Children's Shelter; and

194 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 195 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his honor.

196 PART IX

197 WHEREAS, Mr. Virgil R. Williams graduated from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 198 1963 and as a senior, developed a 40 home subdivision, a gas station, and 12 unit apartment
199 project in his native Atlanta; and

200 WHEREAS, upon graduation, he became president of Williams Contracting, a company that 201 has made its mark in industrial contracting, environmental services, civil and industrial 202 engineering, construction services, and real estate; and

203 WHEREAS, Mr. Williams conceived the "Williams Plan," which showed companies how 204 to save millions of dollars in maintenance costs and reinvented service in the heavy and 205 complicated manufacturing and utility industries; and

206 WHEREAS, in the early 1980s, he purchased a small group of banks in the Atlanta area and 207 convinced Kroger supermarkets to allow him to open branches in their Georgia stores; and

208 WHEREAS, this innovation changed the face of modern banking, with Mr. Williams 209 utilizing this idea nationwide in the form of International Banking Technologies; his financial 210 institutions eventually became part of Bank of America, one of the largest banks in the 211 United States; and

212 WHEREAS, Mr. Williams was a member of the Bank of America Board of Directors, where 213 he served on the Executive Committee and the Compensation Committee and chaired the 214 Governance Committee until his retirement; and

215 WHEREAS, he served as Governor Zell Miller's chief of staff from 1991 to 1995, where he 216 chaired a monumental study on effectiveness and economy in government; during his tenure 217 in state government, Mr. Williams also served on the Georgia Board of Regents and assisted 218 in other activities for Governor Miller; and

219 WHEREAS, Mr. Williams has served on the Board of Trustees at Young Harris College, the 220 Board of Councilors of the Carter Center, and serves on the Board of the Savannah College
221 of Art and Design; he is also a past director of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and past
222 executive committee member of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce; and he continues 223 to serve as a director of the Gwinnett County Chamber of Commerce; and

224 WHEREAS, in 1994, he was recognized as a Distinguished Alumni by both the Georgia
225 Institute of Technology School of Engineering and the School of Industrial Systems
226 Engineering, and in 2005, became the managing member of LLI Management Company,
227 LLC, a resort enterprise of the Virgil R. Williams Family, which owns the long-term
