24 Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as granting immunity to 25 any railroad company as to liability, if any, for an accident which might oc-

47 the highway or where the stopping, standing or parking of vehicles unduly in-48 terferes with the free movement of traffic thereon.

49 (29) On any informational material printed after July 1, 1995, by or at 50 the order of the department and distributed to counties, school districts

1 or individuals for the purpose of assisting a person to successfully pass
