6 SECTION 1. That Section 67-5732A, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby 7 amended to read as follows:

8 67-5732A. DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS PERSONAL PROPERTY AUTHORIZED. Whenever 9 the head of any commission, board, council, task force, committee or depart-10 ment of state government, or any institution of the state, or any elected 11 state official, has under their jurisdiction or control, any personal prop-
12 erty belonging to the state which, in their judgment, is of no further use 13 to the state or to such commission, board, council, task force, committee, 14 department, institution or state office, they may sell, transfer, recycle 15 or discard such personal property in the name of the state and in accordance 16 with the internal management policies and procedures of the board of ex-
17 aminers. The board of examiners shall adopt internal management policies 18 and procedures for the disposal of state surplus personal property to effi-19 ciently dispose of surplus personal property, to allow conveyance of surplus 20 personal property to other state, federal and local agencies, to offer state 21 surplus personal property for sale to the public at large and to provide for 22 maximum value received by the state of Idaho with attendant benefits to its 23 citizens. Provided that when sales will be offered to the public and sold to 24 the highest responsible bidder, notice of such sale shall be published in at 25 least a newspaper of general circulation in accordance with section 60-106, 26 Idaho Code, for at least two (2) weeks prior to such offering.
