8	CONFITCES

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

SECTION 1. That Title 73, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of a NEW CHAPTER, to be known and designated as Chapter 5, Title 73, Idaho Code, and to read as follows:

CHAPTER 5 APPLICATION OF FOREIGN LAWS

73-501. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. It shall be the public policy of this state to protect its citizens from the application of foreign laws when the application of foreign law will result in the violation of a fundamental right guaranteed by the constitution of the United States or the constitution of the state of Idaho including, but not limited to, due process, freedom of religion, speech or the press, and any right of privacy or marriage embodied in the constitution of the state of Idaho.

73-502. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Court" means any court, board, tribunal, arbitration, administrative agency or other adjudicative or enforcement authority of this state.
- (2) "Foreign law" means any law, legal code or system of a jurisdiction outside of any state or territory of the United States including, but not limited to, international organizations and tribunals and applied by that jurisdiction's courts, administrative bodies or other formal or informal tribunals. For the purposes of this chapter, "foreign law" shall not mean, nor shall it include, any laws of the Indian tribes in this state.
- (3) "Religious organization" means any church, seminary, synagogue, temple, mosque, religious order, or religious corporation, association or society whose identity is distinctive in terms of common religious creed, beliefs, doctrines, practices or rituals of any faith or denomination, including any organization qualifying as a church or religious organization under section 501(c)(3) or 501(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- 73-503. USE OF FOREIGN LAWS -- ENFORCEABILITY. Any court ruling or decision that violates the public policy of this state shall be void and unenforceable to the extent that the court bases its ruling or decision in the matter at issue in whole or in part on any foreign law that would not grant the parties affected by the ruling or decision similar fundamental liberties, rights and privileges guaranteed under the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Idaho including, but not limited to, due process, freedom of religion, speech or the press, and any right of privacy or marriage embodied in the constitution of the state of Idaho.

73-504. CHOICE OF LAW. A contract or contractual provision that provides for the choice of foreign law to govern some or all of the disputes between the parties adjudicated by a court or by an arbitration panel arising from the contract mutually agreed upon that violates the public policy of this state shall be void and unenforceable if the foreign law chosen includes or incorporates substantive or procedural law, as applied to the dispute at issue, that would not grant the parties similar fundamental liberties, rights, and privileges guaranteed under the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Idaho including, but not limited to, due process, freedom of religion, speech or the press, and any right of privacy or marriage embodied in the constitution of the state of Idaho.

73-505. JURISDICTION. A contract or contractual provision that provides for jurisdiction for the purpose of granting the courts or arbitration panels in personam jurisdiction over the parties to adjudicate any disputes between the parties arising from the contract mutually agreed upon shall violate the public policy of this state and be void and unenforceable if the jurisdiction or arbitration panel chosen includes or incorporates substantive or procedural foreign law, as applied to the dispute at issue, that would not guarantee the parties similar fundamental liberties, rights, and privileges guaranteed under the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Idaho including, but not limited to, due process, freedom of religion, speech or the press, and any right of privacy or marriage embodied in the constitution of the state of Idaho.

73-506. FORUM NON CONVENIENS. If a person, subject to personal jurisdiction in this state, seeks to maintain litigation, arbitration, agency or similarly binding proceedings in this state and if the courts of this state find that granting a claim of forum non conveniens violates or would likely violate a fundamental right guaranteed under the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Idaho of the nonclaimant in the foreign forum with respect to the matter in dispute, the claim shall be denied.

- 73-507. APPLICABILITY. (1) This chapter shall not apply to a corporation, partnership, limited liability corporation, business association or other legal entity to the extent that it contracts to subject itself to foreign law in a jurisdiction other than this state or the United States.
- (2) This chapter shall not apply to a contract entered into prior to the effective date of this act.
- (3) No court or arbitrator shall interpret the provisions of this chapter to limit the right of any person to the free exercise of religion as guaranteed by the first amendment to the constitution of the United States and section 4, article I, of the constitution of the state of Idaho. No court shall interpret the provisions of this act to require or authorize any court to adjudicate or prohibit any religious organization from adjudicating ecclesiastical matters including, but not limited to, the appointment, calling, discipline, dismissal, removal or excommunication of a member, officer, official, priest, nun, monk, pastor, rabbi, imam or other member of the clergy of the religious organization, or the determination or interpretation of the doctrine of the religious organization where adjudication by a court would violate the establishment or free exercise clause of the first amendment to the constitution of the United States and section 4, article I, of the constitution of the state of Idaho.

73-508. CONFLICT. This chapter shall not be interpreted by any court to conflict with any federal treaty or other international agreement to which the United States is a party to the extent that such treaty or international agreement is valid and preempts or is superior to state law on the matter at issue.
