28 and has failed to register his paternity as provided in section
29 16-1504(5), Idaho Code; or

31 that would allow the entry of an order of termination of parental
32 rights pursuant to section 16-2005, Idaho Code, even though termi-
33 nation of parental rights is not being sought as to such father.

34 (3) (a) As an alternative to appointing one (1) guardian for a minor, the 35 court may appoint no more than two (2) persons as co-guardians for a mi-

11 it shall make the appointment. In other cases the court may dismiss the pro-12 ceedings, or make any other disposition of the matter that will best serve 13 the interests of the minor.

14 (5) Prior to the appointment of a guardian:

15 (a) The court may appoint a temporary guardian for the minor if it finds 16 by a preponderance of evidence that:

- 17 (i) A petition for guardianship under this section has been
- 18 filed, but a guardian has not yet been appointed;
- 19 (ii) The appointment is necessary to protect the minor's health,
- 20 safety or welfare until the petition can be heard; and
- 21 (iii) No other person appears to have the ability, authority and
- 22 willingness to act.

23 (b) A temporary guardian may be appointed without notice or hearing 24 if the minor is in the physical custody of the petitioner or proposed 25 temporary guardian and the court finds from a statement made under oath
26 that the minor may be immediately and substantially harmed before no-27 tice can be given or a hearing held.

28 (c) Notice of the appointment of a temporary guardian must be given to 29 those designated in subsection (2) of this section within seventy-two
30 (72) hours after the appointment. The notice must inform interested
31 persons of the right to request a hearing. The court must hold a hearing
32 on the appropriateness of the appointment within fourteen (14) days 33 after request by an interested person. In all cases, either a hearing on 34 the temporary guardianship or on the petition for guardianship itself 35 must be held within ninety (90) days of the filing of any petition for 36 guardianship of a minor.

37 (d) The temporary guardian's authority may not exceed six (6) months
38 unless extended for good cause. Only one (1) such extension may be made, 39 and the extension period must not last longer than six (6) additional 40 months. The powers of the temporary guardian shall be limited to those 41 necessary to protect the immediate health, safety or welfare of the mi-42 nor until a hearing may be held and must include the care and custody of 43 the minor.

44 (e) A temporary guardian must make reports as the court requires.

45 (6) When a minor is under guardianship:

46 (a) The court may appoint a temporary guardian if it finds:

- 47 (i) Substantial evidence that the previously appointed guardian
- 48 is not performing the guardian's duties; and
- 49 (ii) The appointment of a temporary guardian is necessary to pro-
- 50 tect the minor's health, safety or welfare.

1 (b) A temporary guardian may be appointed without notice or hearing if 2 the court finds from a statement made under oath that the minor may be 3 immediately and substantially harmed before notice can be given or a 4 hearing held.

5 (c) Notice of the appointment of a temporary guardian must be given to 6 those designated in subsection (2) of this section within seventy-two
7 (72) hours after the appointment. The notice must inform interested
8 persons of the right to request a hearing. The court shall hold a hear-9 ing on the appropriateness of the appointment within fourteen (14) days 10 after request by an interested person.

11 (d) The authority of a previously appointed guardian is suspended as 12 long as a temporary guardian has authority. The court must hold a hear-13 ing before the expiration of the temporary guardian's authority and may 14 enter any appropriate order. The temporary guardian's authority may 15 not exceed six (6) months unless extended for good cause as provided
16 in subsection (5) (d) of this section. Prior to the end of an exten-
17 sion period, the court must appoint a guardian other than a temporary 18 guardian or take other appropriate action, but in no event may a tempo-19 rary guardianship last longer than twelve (12) months in total.

20 (e) A temporary guardian must make reports as the court requires.

21 (7) The court shall appoint an attorney to represent the minor if the 22 court determines that the minor possesses sufficient maturity to direct the 23 attorney. If the court finds that the minor is not mature enough to direct 24 an attorney, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor. The 25 court may decline to appoint an attorney or guardian ad litem if it finds in 26 writing that such appointment is not necessary to serve the best interests of 27 the minor or if the Idaho department of health and welfare has legal custody 28 of the child.

29 (8) Letters of guardianship must indicate whether the guardian was ap-30 pointed by will or by court order.

31 SECTION 2. An emergency existing therefor, which emergency is hereby 32 declared to exist, this act shall be in full force and effect on and after its 33 passage and approval.
