Sec. 3. (a) Except as provided in subsection (c), a notice to a party, or another document, that:

- (1) is legally required in an insurance transaction; or
- (2) serves as evidence of insurance coverage;

may be electronically delivered, stored, and presented in compliance with IC 26-2-8.

(b) Electronic delivery of a notice or document under this section is considered to be equivalent to any legally required delivery method, including delivery by:

- (1) first class mail;
- (2) first class mail, postage prepaid;
- (3) certified mail;
- (4) certificate of mail; or
- (5) certificate of mailing.

(c) Electronic delivery of a notice or document by an insurer to a party is permitted under this chapter if all the following apply:

- (1) The party has affirmatively consented to electronic delivery and has not withdrawn the consent.
- (2) The party, before giving consent, is provided with a clear and conspicuous statement informing the party of all the following:
  - (A) Any right or option of the party to have the notice or document provided or made available in paper or another nonelectronic form.
  - (B) The right of the party to withdraw consent to electronic delivery of a notice or document and any fees, conditions, or consequences that will be imposed on the party if the party withdraws consent.
  - (C) Whether the party's consent applies:
    - (i) only to the particular transaction as to which the notice or document must be given; or
    - (ii) to identified categories of notices or documents subject to electronic delivery during the course of the party's relationship with the insurer.

 15 which the party has given consent.
- 16 (4) If, after the party has consented to electronic delivery of 17 notices or documents, a change in the hardware or software
 18 requirements needed for the party to access or retain an

 20 risk that the party will not be able to access or retain a
 21 subsequent notice or document to which the consent applies,
 22 the insurer:

 34 to a party expressly requires verification or acknowledgment of 35 receipt of the notice or document, electronic delivery of the notice
 36 or document is permitted only if the method of electronic delivery
 37 provides for verification or acknowledgment of receipt.
 38 (c) The legal effectiveness, validity, or enforceability of a
 39 contract or policy of insurance executed by a party may not be
 40 denied solely because of the failure of the insurer to obtain 41 electronic consent or confirmation of consent of the party in 42 accordance with section 3(c)(3)(B) of this chapter.

1           Sec. 5. (a) A withdrawal of consent by a party does not affect the
 2 legal effectiveness, validity, or enforceability of a notice or
 3 document that is electronically delivered to the party before the
 4 withdrawal of consent is effective.

5           (b) A withdrawal of consent by a party is effective thirty (30)
 6 days after the insurer receives notice of the withdrawal.

7           (c) An insurer's failure to comply with section 3(c)(4) of this

 21 notices or documents to the party under this chapter;

22 the insurer shall, before electronically delivering the additional
 23 notices or documents, notify the party that notices or documents
 24 that were not previously electronically delivered may now be 25 electronically delivered under this chapter and that the party has 26 a right to withdraw consent to electronic delivery of notices or 27 documents.

28          Sec. 7. (a) Except as otherwise provided by law, if an oral
 29 communication or a recording of an oral communication from a
