SENATE BILL No. 25

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 22-5-8.

Synopsis: Use of consumer reports for employment purposes. Prohibits an employer from using a consumer report for employment purposes unless certain conditions apply. Allows a consumer to bring a civil action against an employer for a violation of this provision. Provides that if the attorney general has reason to believe that an employer has violated the provision, the attorney general may bring one or both of the following: (1) An action to enjoin the violation. (2) An action to recover damages sustained by Indiana residents as a result of the violation. Makes it: (1) a Class B infraction for a knowing or intentional violation of the provision; or (2) a Class A infraction if an employer has a prior unrelated judgment for a violation of the provision.

Effective: July 1, 2019.

Randolph Lonnie M

January 3, 2019, read first time and referred to Committee on Commerce and Technology.

Introduced

First Regular Session of the 121st General Assembly (2019)

PRINTING CODE. Amendments: Whenever an existing statute (or a section of the Indiana Constitution) is being amended, the text of the existing provision will appear in this style type, additions will appear in this style type, and deletions will appear in this style type.

Additions: Whenever a new statutory provision is being enacted (or a new constitutional provision adopted), the text of the new provision will appear in this style type. Also, the word NEW will appear in that style type in the introductory clause of each SECTION that adds a new provision to the Indiana Code or the Indiana Constitution.

Conflict reconciliation: Text in a statute in this style type or this style type reconciles conflicts between statutes enacted by the 2018 Regular and Special Session of the General Assembly.

SENATE BILL No. 25

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning labor and safety.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 22-5-8 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2019]:
Chapter 8. Use of Consumer Reports by Employers
Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "consumer" means an individual whose credit information and history are recorded in a consumer report.
Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "consumer report" has the meaning set forth in 15 U.S.C. 1681a(d).
Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "employer" has the meaning set forth in IC 22-8-1.1-1.
Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "employment purposes", when used in connection with a consumer report, means the use of the consumer report for the purpose of evaluating a consumer for Indiana employment, including:
(1) initial employment;
(2) promotion;

2019

IN 25—LS 6184/DI 101

 (3) reassignment; or (4) retention as an employee. Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "Indiana employment" means service, including service in interstate commerce, that is performed by an individual: (1) for remuneration or under any contract of hire, written or oral, or expressed or implied; and (2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to section 6 of this chapter, the service: (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and: (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed outside the state; or (2) the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer holds or for which the consum
3Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "Indiana employment" means4service, including service in interstate commerce, that is performed5by an individual:6(1) for remuneration or under any contract of hire, written or7oral, or expressed or implied; and8(2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to9section 6 of this chapter, the service:10(A) is localized in Indiana; or11(B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is12performed in Indiana and:13(i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of14operations, the place from which the service is directed15or controlled, is in Indiana; or16(ii) the base of operations or place from which the17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in18which some part of the service is performed but the10Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed outside the state; or24(2) the service within the state, such as service that is25but the service within the state or federal law,36and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit37Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a38consumer report for employment purposes unless the following39apply:34(1) The information used from the co	1	(3) reassignment; or service, including service in interstate commerce, that is performed by an individual: (1) for remuneration or under any contract of hire, written or oral, or expressed or implied; and (2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to section 6 of this chapter, the service: (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and:
5by an individual:6(1) for remuneration or under any contract of hire, written or7or al, or expressed or implied; and8(2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to9section 6 of this chapter, the service:10(A) is localized in Indiana; or11(B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is12performed in Indiana and:13(i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of14operations, the place from which the service is directed15or controlled, is in Indiana; or16(ii) the base of operations or place from which the17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in18which some part of the service is performed but the19residence of the individual performing the service is in20Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed outside the state; or24(2) the service is performed outside the state is incidental to the25but the service within the state, such as service that is26temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated27transactions.28Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,39and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit30Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a31consumer rep
 (1) for remuneration or under any contract of hire, written or oral, or expressed or implied; and (2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to section 6 of this chapter, the service: (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and: (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed outside the state; or (2) the service is performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or (2) the service a sotherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer has position.
 oral, or expressed or implied; and (2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to section 6 of this chapter, the service: (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and: (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the 		•
 (2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to section 6 of this chapter, the service: (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and: (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled, is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed outside the state; or (2) the service performed outside the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is on (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 		(1) for remuneration or under any contract of hire, written or section 6 of this chapter, the service: (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and: (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed outside the state; or (2) the service is performed outside the state; such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may no tuse a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is an position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. 		oral, or expressed or implied; and
 (A) is localized in Indiana; or (B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is performed in Indiana and: (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed outside the state; or (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer holds or for which th		(2) within or both within and outside Indiana if, subject to
11(B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is12performed in Indiana and:13(i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of14operations, the place from which the service is directed15or controlled, is in Indiana; or16(ii) the base of operations or place from which the17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in18which some part of the service is performed but the19residence of the individual performing the service is in20Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or24(2) the service performed outside the state is incidental to the25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27transactions.28Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a33consumer report for employment purposes unless the following34apply:35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confid	9	section 6 of this chapter, the service:
12performed in Indiana and:13(i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of14operations, the place from which the service is directed15or controlled, is in Indiana; or16(ii) the base of operations or place from which the17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in18which some part of the service is performed but the19residence of the individual performing the service is in10Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed outside the state; or24(2) the service performed outside the state is incidental to the25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,37other assets, or confiden	10	(A) is localized in Indiana; or
 (i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is in Indiana; or (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed obth within and outside the state; or (2) the service performed obth within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	11	(B) is not localized in any state, but some of the service is
14operations, the place from which the service is directed15or controlled, is in Indiana; or16(ii) the base of operations or place from which the17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in18which some part of the service is performed but the19residence of the individual performing the service is in20Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or24(2) the service is performed both within and outside the state,25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36nor or which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,36or or which the consumer holds or for which the37consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:38and to the consumer has, or would have, access to money,39other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consu	12	performed in Indiana and:
15or controlled, is in Indiana; or16(ii) the base of operations or place from which the17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in18which some part of the service is performed but the19residence of the individual performing the service is in20Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or24(2) the service is performed both within and outside the state,25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit38Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a39consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36of or which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the41(A) A managerial po	13	(i) the base of operations, or, if there is no base of
 (ii) the base of operations or place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana. Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer holds or for which the consu	14	operations, the place from which the service is directed
17service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position.	15	or controlled, is in Indiana; or
18which some part of the service is performed but the residence of the individual performing the service is in Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position.	16	(ii) the base of operations or place from which the 19residence of the individual performing the service is in20Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or24(2) the service is performed both within and outside the state,25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36no for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	17	service is directed or controlled is not in any state in
20Indiana.21Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or24(2) the service is performed both within and outside the state,25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	18	which some part of the service is performed but the
 Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	19	residence of the individual performing the service is in
 performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if: (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	20
22performed by an individual is considered localized in a state if:23(1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or24(2) the service is performed both within and outside the state,25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	21	Sec. 6. For purposes of section 5 of this chapter, service
 (1) the service is performed entirely within the state; or (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	22
 (2) the service is performed both within and outside the state, but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	23
25but the service performed outside the state is incidental to the26individual's service within the state, such as service that is27temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	24
 individual's service within the state, such as service that is temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	25 temporary or transitory in nature or that consists of isolated transactions. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law, and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	26	•
28transactions.29Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law,30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	27
30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	28
30and to the extent not inconsistent with the federal Fair Credit31Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a32consumer report for employment purposes unless the following33apply:34(1) The information used from the consumer report is35substantially job related in that the position that the consumer36holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in37which the consumer has, or would have, access to money,38other assets, or confidential information.39(2) The position the consumer holds or for which the40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.	29	Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided under state or federal law.
 Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), an employer may not use a consumer report for employment purposes unless the following apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 		• •
 32 consumer report for employment purposes unless the following 33 apply: 34 (1) The information used from the consumer report is 35 substantially job related in that the position that the consumer 36 holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in 37 which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, 38 other assets, or confidential information. 39 (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the 40 consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: 41 (A) A managerial position.
 apply: (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position.
 (1) The information used from the consumer report is substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position. 	33 substantially job related in that the position that the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position.
 holds or for which the consumer is applying is a position in which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position.
 which the consumer has, or would have, access to money, other assets, or confidential information. (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: (A) A managerial position.
 38 other assets, or confidential information. 39 (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the 40 consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: 41 (A) A managerial position.
 39 (2) The position the consumer holds or for which the 40 consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following: 41 (A) A managerial position.
40consumer is applying is one (1) or more of the following:41(A) A managerial position.
41 (A) A managerial position.
(2) It position with the office of the attorney general
	. 4	(2) 11 position with the onles of the actorney general

IN 25-LS 6184/DI 101

1	(C) A monition with a site tarm on country
1 2	(C) A position with a city, town, or county.
$\frac{2}{3}$	(D) Any law enforcement position.(E) A position for which the information used from the
3 4	(E) A position for which the information used from the
4 5	consumer report is required to be: (i) disclosed by law; or
5 6
7	(ii) obtained by the employer under state or federal law.
8	(3) The employer does the following: (A) Provides to the gradit reporting agencies from which a
o 9	(A) Provides to the credit reporting agencies from which a
9 10	consumer report will be procured a certification described in 15 U.S.C. 1681c(a) as required by 15 U.S.C. 1681b(b)
10	in 15 U.S.C. 1681e(a), as required by 15 U.S.C. 1681b(f). (B) Compliant with 15 U.S.C. 1681b(b)(2) have
11	(B) Complies with 15 U.S.C. 1681b(b)(2) by:
12	(i) providing to the consumer, at any time before the
13 14	consumer report is procured, a written disclosure that a
14	consumer report may be obtained for employment purposes; and
15 16	(ii) obtaining the consumer's written authorization for
10	the procurement of the consumer report.
17	(C) If applicable, complies with 15 U.S.C. 1681b(b)(3)
19	concerning adverse employment actions based in whole or
20	in part on consumer reports.
20	Sec. 8. (a) In addition to any remedy that a consumer may have
21	under:
22	(1) 15 U.S.C. 1681n with respect to a person's willful failure
23 24	to comply with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15
25	U.S.C. 1681 et seq.); or
26	(2) 15 U.S.C. 16810 with respect to a person's negligent failure
27	to comply with the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15
28	U.S.C. 1681 et seq.);
29	a consumer may bring, in any court with jurisdiction, a civil action
30	against an employer that uses the consumer's consumer report in
31	violation of section 7 of this chapter.
32	(b) In an action brought by a consumer under subsection (a),
33	other than an action under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act
34	(15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.) described in subsection (a)(1) or (a)(2), if
35	the court determines that an employer has violated section 7 of this
36	chapter, the court may do the following:
37	(1) Award:
38	(A) actual damages;
39	(B) punitive damages, in the case of a willful violation of
40	section 7 of this chapter; and
41	(C) court costs and reasonable attorney's fees;
42	to the prevailing consumer.
	• •

1 (2) Enjoin further violation of this chapter by the employer. 2 Sec. 9. If the attorney general has reason to believe an employer 3 has violated or is violating section 7 of this chapter, the attorney 4 general may, in conjunction with or independent of an action 5 authorized under 15 U.S.C. 1681s(c), do one (1) or more of the 6 following: 7 (1) Bring an action, in any court with jurisdiction, to enjoin 8 the violation. 9 (2) Bring an action, in any court with jurisdiction, on behalf 10 of Indiana residents to recover damages sustained by Indiana 11 residents as a result of the violation.

In a successful action under subdivision (1) or (2), the attorney general shall be awarded the costs of the action and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court.

15 Sec. 10. An employer who knowingly or intentionally violates 16 this chapter commits a Class B infraction. However, the offense is a Class A infraction if the employer has a prior unrelated judgment for an infraction under this section.

