SENATE BILL No. 222

A BILL FOR AN ACT concerning elections.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2017] (a) The amendment to the Constitution of the State of Indiana, amending Article 10, Section 5 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana, agreed to by the One Hundred Twentieth General Assembly (Senate Joint Resolution 7-2017) and the One Hundred Nineteenth General Assembly (P.L.259-2015) shall be submitted to the electors of Indiana at the 2018 general election in the manner provided for the submission of constitutional amendments under IC 3.

(b) Under Article 16, Section 1 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana, which requires the general assembly to submit constitutional amendments to the electors at the next general election after the general assembly agrees to the amendment referred to it by the last previously elected general assembly, and in accordance with IC 3-10-3, the general assembly prescribes the form in which the public question concerning the ratification of this state constitutional amendment must appear on the 2018 general election ballot as follows:

"Public Question #1

Shall the Constitution of the State of Indiana be amended by amending Article 10, Section 5 to provide that: (1) the amount of the appropriations enacted in a biennial budget may not exceed the estimated revenue of the State in the biennial budget period; (2) the State budget must appropriate for the State's prefunded pension funds the amount necessary to actuarially fund the accrued liability of all such pension funds during the budget period; (3) if expenses exceed actual revenue received by the State when reconciled at the close of a biennial budget period, the subsequent biennial budget must subtract any shortfall from the projected revenue available for that subsequent biennial budget; (4) any of the foregoing provisions may be suspended if at least two-thirds of the members of each of the houses of the General Assembly vote to suspend the provision; and (5) the remedies a court may order are restricted if it finds a violation of the amended constitutional section?"
