wage specified in subdivision (1) and the wage in effect under subsections (b), (f), (g),  $\frac{1}{2}$ , and (j).

An employer is responsible for supporting the amount of tip credit taken through reported tips by the employees.

- (d) No employer having employees subject to any provisions of this section shall discriminate, within any establishment in which employees are employed, between employees on the basis of sex by paying to employees in such establishment a rate less than the rate at which the employer pays wages to employees of the opposite sex in such establishment for equal work on jobs the performance of which requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and which are performed under similar working conditions, except where such payment is made pursuant to:
  - (1) a seniority system;
  - (2) a merit system;

- (3) a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production; or
- (4) a differential based on any other factor other than sex.
- (e) An employer who is paying a wage rate differential in violation of subsection (d) shall not, in order to comply with subsection (d), reduce the wage rate of any employee, and no labor organization, or its agents, representing employees of an employer having employees subject to subsection (d) shall cause or attempt to cause such an employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of subsection (d).
- (f) Except as provided in subsection (c), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after October 1, 1998, and before March 1, 1999, wages of not less than four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per hour.
- (g) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (j), (l), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after March 1, 1999, and before July 1, 2007, wages of not less than five dollars and fifteen cents ($5.15) an hour.
- (h) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (j), (l), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after June 30, 2007, and before July 1, 2014, wages of not less than the minimum wage payable under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, a	S

- (i) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (l), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after July 1, 2014, and before July 1, 2015, wages of not less than eight dollars and fifty cents ($8.50) an hour.
- (j) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (l), every employer employing at least two (2) employees during a work week shall, in any work week in which the employer is subject to this chapter, pay each of the employees in any work week beginning on or after July 1, 2015, wages of not less than ten dollars ($10) an hour.
  - (i) (k) This section does not apply if an employee:
    - (1) provides companionship services to the aged and infirm (as defined in 29 CFR 552.6); and
    - (2) is employed by an employer or agency other than the family or household using the companionship services, as provided in 29 CFR 552.109 (a).
- (j) (l) This subsection applies only to an employee who has not attained the age of twenty (20) years. Instead of the rates prescribed by subsections (c), (f), (g), and (h), (i), and (j), an employer may pay an employee of the employer, during the first ninety (90) consecutive calendar days after the employee is initially employed by the employer, a wage which is not less than:
  - (1) four dollars and twenty-five cents ($4.25) per hour, effective March 1, 1999; and
  - (2) the amount payable under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.), during the first ninety (90) consecutive calendar days after initial employment to an employee who has not attained twenty (20) years of age, effective July 1, 2007.

However, no employer may take any action to displace employees (including partial displacements such as reduction in hours, wages, or employment benefits) for purposes of hiring individuals at the wage authorized in this subsection.

(k) (m) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no employer shall employ any employee for a work week longer than forty (40) hours unless the employee receives compensation for employment in excess of the hours above specified at a rate not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate at which the employee is employed.

1	(1) (n) For purposes of this section the following apply:
2	(1) "Overtime compensation" means the compensation required
3	by subsection (k). (m).
4	(2) "Compensatory time" and "compensatory time off" mean
5	hours during which an employee is not working, which are not
6	counted as hours worked during the applicable work week or
7	other work period for purposes of overtime compensation, and for
8	which the employee is compensated at the employee's regular
9	rate.
10	(3) "Regular rate" means the rate at which an employee is
11	employed is considered to include all remuneration for 12	employment paid to, or on behalf of, the employee, but is not
13	considered to include the following:
14	(A) Sums paid as gifts, payments in the nature of gifts made at
15	Christmas time or on other special occasions, as a reward for
16	service, the amounts of which are not measured by or
17	dependent on hours worked, production, or efficiency.
18	(B) Payments made for occasional periods when no work is
19	performed due to vacation, holiday, illness, failure of the
20	employer to provide sufficient work, or other similar cause,
21	reasonable payments for traveling expenses, or other expenses,
22	incurred by an employee in the furtherance of the employer's
23	interests and properly reimbursable by the employer, and other
24	similar payments to an employee which are not made as
25	compensation for the employee's hours of employment.
26	(C) Sums paid in recognition of services performed during a
27	given period if:
28	(i) both the fact that payment is to be made and the amount
29	of the payment are determined at the sole discretion of the 30	employer at or near the end of the period and not pursuant
31	to any prior contract, agreement, or promise causing the
32	employee to expect the payments regularly;
33	(ii) the payments are made pursuant to a bona fide profit
34	sharing plan or trust or bona fide thrift or savings plan,
35	meeting the requirements of the administrator set forth in
36	appropriately issued regulations, having due regard among
37	other relevant factors, to the extent to which the amounts
38	paid to the employee are determined without regard to hours
39	of work, production, or efficiency; or
40	(iii) the payments are talent fees paid to performers,
41	including announcers, on radio and television programs.
42	(D) Contributions irrevocably made by an employer to a trustee or third person pursuant to a bona fide plan for providing old age, retirement, life, accident, or health insurance or similar benefits for employees.

8
(E) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid for certain hours worked by the employee in any day or work week because those hours are hours worked in excess of eight
(8) in a day or in excess of the maximum work week applicable to the employee under subsection (k) (m) or in excess of the employee's normal working hours or regular working hours, as the case may be.
(F) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid for work by the employee on Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, or regular days of rest, or on the sixth or seventh day of the work week, where the premium rate is not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the rate established in good faith for like work performed in nonovertime hours on other days.
(G) Extra compensation provided by a premium rate paid to the employee, in pursuance of an applicable employment contract or collective bargaining agreement, for work outside of the hours established in good faith by the contract or agreement as the basic, normal, or regular workday (not exceeding eight (8) hours) or work week (not exceeding the maximum work week applicable to the employee under subsection (k) (m)) where the premium rate is not less than one and one-half $(1.5)$ times the rate established in good faith the workday or work week.

(m) (o) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (k) (m) by employing any employee for a work week in excess of that specified in subsection (k) (m) without paying the compensation for overtime employment prescribed therein if the employee is so employed:

by the contract or agreement for like work performed during

(1) in pursuance of an agreement, made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees certified as bona fide by the National Labor Relations Board, which provides that no employee shall be employed more than one thousand forty (1,040) hours during any period of twenty-six (26) consecutive weeks; or (2) in pursuance of an agreement, made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees certified as bona fide by the National Labor Relations Board, which provides that during a specified period of fifty-two (52) consecutive weeks the employee shall be employed not more than two thousand two

- (n) (p) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (k) (m) by employing any employee for a work week in excess of the maximum work week applicable to the employee under subsection (k) (m) if the employee is employed pursuant to a bona fide individual contract, or pursuant to an agreement made as a result of collective bargaining by representatives of employees, if the duties of the employee necessitate irregular hours of work, and the contract or agreement includes the following:
  - (1) Specifies a regular rate of pay of not less than the minimum hourly rate provided in subsections (c), (h), (i), and (j), and (l) (whichever is applicable) and compensation at not less than one and one-half (1.5) times that rate for all hours worked in excess of the maximum work week.
  - (2) Provides a weekly guaranty of pay for not more than sixty (60) hours based on the rates so specified.
- (o) (q) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection (k) (m) by employing any employee for a work week in excess of the maximum work week applicable to the employee under that subsection if, pursuant to an agreement or understanding arrived at between the employer and the employee before performance of the work, the amount paid to the employee for the number of hours worked by the employee in the work week in excess of the maximum work week applicable to the employee under that subsection:
  - (1) in the case of an employee employed at piece rates, is computed at piece rates not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the bona fide piece rates applicable to the same work when performed during nonovertime hours;
  - (2) in the case of an employee performing two (2) or more kinds of work for which different hourly or piece rates have been

1	established, is computed at rates not less than one and one-half
2	(1.5) times those bona fide rates applicable to the same work
3	when performed during nonovertime hours; or
4	(3) is computed at a rate not less than one and one-half $(1.5)$ times
5	the rate established by the agreement or understanding as the
6	basic rate to be used in computing overtime compensation
7	thereunder, provided that the rate so established shall be
8	substantially equivalent to the average hourly earnings of the
9	employee, exclusive of overtime premiums, in the particular work
10	over a representative period of time;
11	and if the employee's average hourly earnings for the work week
12	exclusive of payments described in this section are not less than the
13	minimum hourly rate required by applicable law, and extra overtime
14	compensation is properly computed and paid on other forms of
15	additional pay required to be included in computing the regular rate.
16	(p) (r) Extra compensation paid as described in this section shall be
17	creditable toward overtime compensation payable pursuant to this
18	section.
19	(q) (s) No employer shall be considered to have violated subsection
20	(k) (m) by employing any employee of a retail or service establishment
21	for a work week in excess of the applicable work week specified
22	therein, if:
23	(1) the regular rate of pay of the employee is in excess of one and
24	one-half (1.5) times the minimum hourly rate applicable to the
25	employee under section 2 of this chapter; and
26	(2) more than half of the employee's compensation for a
27	representative period (not less than one (1) month) represents
28	commissions on goods or services.
29	In determining the proportion of compensation representing
30	commissions, all earnings resulting from the application of a bona fide
31	commission rate shall be considered commissions on goods or services
32	without regard to whether the computed commissions exceed the draw
33	or guarantee.
34	(r) (t) No employer engaged in the operation of a hospital or an
35	establishment which is an institution primarily engaged in the care of
36	the sick, the aged, or individuals with a mental illness or defect who
37	reside on the premises shall be considered to have violated subsection
38	(k) (m) if, pursuant to an agreement or understanding arrived at 39	between the employer and the employee before performance of the 40	work, a work period of fourteen (14) consecutive days is accepted in 41	lieu of the work week of seven (7) consecutive days for purposes of overtime computation and if, for the employee's employment in excess of eight (8) hours in any workday and in excess of eighty (80) hours in that fourteen (14) day period, the employee receives compensation at a rate not less than one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate at which the employee is employed.

- (s) (u) No employer shall employ any employee in domestic service in one (1) or more households for a work week longer than forty (40) hours unless the employee receives compensation for that employment in accordance with subsection (k). (m).
- (t) (v) In the case of an employee of an employer engaged in the business of operating a street, a suburban or interurban electric railway, or a local trolley or motorbus carrier (regardless of whether or not the railway or carrier is public or private or operated for profit or not for profit), in determining the hours of employment of such an employee to which the rate prescribed by subsection (k) (m) applies, there shall be excluded the hours the employee was employed in charter activities by the employer if both of the following apply:
  - (1) The employee's employment in the charter activities was pursuant to an agreement or understanding with the employer arrived at before engaging in that employment.
  - (2) If employment in the charter activities is not part of the employee's regular employment.
- (u) (w) Any employer may employ any employee for a period or periods of not more than ten (10) hours in the aggregate in any work week in excess of the maximum work week specified in subsection (k) (m) without paying the compensation for overtime employment prescribed in subsection (k), (m), if during that period or periods the employee is receiving remedial education that:
  - (1) is provided to employees who lack a high school diploma or educational attainment at the eighth grade level;
  - (2) is designed to provide reading and other basic skills at an eighth grade level or below; and
  - (3) does not include job specific training.
- $\frac{(v)}{(x)}$  Subsection  $\frac{(k)}{(k)}$  (m) does not apply to an employee of a motion picture theater.
- (w) (y) Subsection (k) (m) does not apply to an employee of a seasonal amusement or recreational establishment, an organized camp, or a religious or nonprofit educational conference center that is exempt under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 U.S.C. 213).
- SECTION 3. IC 22-2-2-14 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 14. (a) This section applies to an employer that is

1	subject to the minimum wage provisions of the federal Fair Labor
2	Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 U.S.C. 201-209).
3	(b) If the minimum hourly wage required under section 4 of this
4	chapter is higher than the minimum wage provisions of the federal
5	Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 U.S.C. 201-209),
6	an employer shall pay the minimum hourly wage required under
7	section 4 of this chapter.
