35	(5) that the most recent biennial report required by section 13
36	of this chapter has been delivered to the secretary of state for
37	filing; and

The statement amends the 30 registered agent filing for each of those entities to: 31 (1) designate the person becoming listed as a commercial 32 registered agent as the commercial registered agent of each of 33 those entities; and 34 (2) delete the name and address of the former agent. 35 Sec. 5. (a) A commercial registered agent may terminate its listing 36 as a commercial registered agent by delivering to the secretary of 37 state for filing a commercial registered agent termination statement 38 signed by the agent which states: 39 (1) the name of the agent as listed under section 4 of this 40 chapter; and 41 (2) that the agent is no longer in the business of serving as a 42 commercial registered agent in Indiana.

Sec. 6. (a) A represented entity may change the information on file state for filing a statement of change signed by the entity which 38	same effect as a termination under section 5 of this chapter.

39	Promptly after canceling the listing of an agent, the secretary of state
40	shall serve notice in a record in the manner provided in section 10(b)

20	represented entity.
21	(c) A registered agent promptly shall furnish to the represented
22	entity notice in a record of the date on which a statement of 23	resignation was filed.
24	(d) When a statement of resignation takes effect, the person that 25 26	resigned ceases to have responsibility under this chapter for any 26	matter thereafter tendered to it as agent for the represented entity.
27 28	The resignation does not affect any contractual rights the entity has 28 29	against the agent or that the agent has against the entity.
29 30	(e) A registered agent may resign with respect to a represented
30 31	entity whether or not the entity is in good standing. Sec. 10. (a) A represented entity may be served with any process,

33 36	entity may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt
30 37	requested, or by similar commercial delivery service, addressed to 38	the entity at the entity's principal office. The address of the principal
39	office of a domestic filing entity or registered foreign entity must be

⊣ ∠	var myst UI.

The designation or maintenance in Indiana of a 34 registered agent does not by itself create the basis for personal 35 jurisdiction over the represented entity in Indiana. The address of 36 the agent does not determine venue in an action or a proceeding 37 involving the entity. 38 Chapter 5. Foreign Entities 39 Sec. 1. (a) The law of the jurisdiction of formation of an entity 40 governs: 41 (1) the internal affairs of the entity; 42 (2) the liability that a person has as an interest holder or

(a) A foreign filing entity may not do business in Indiana 12 until it registers with the secretary of state under this article. 13 However, this requirement does not apply to foreign regulated 14 entities. 15 (b) A foreign filing entity doing business in Indiana may not 16 maintain an action or proceeding in this state unless it is registered 17 to do business in Indiana. 18 (c) The failure of a foreign filing entity to register to do business 19 in Indiana does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the 20 foreign filing entity or preclude it from defending an action or 21 proceeding in Indiana. 22 (d) A limitation on the liability of an interest holder or governing 23 person of a foreign filing entity is not waived solely because the 24 foreign filing entity does business in Indiana without registering. 25 (e) Section 1(a) of this chapter applies to a foreign entity even if 26 the foreign entity fails to register under this chapter. 27 (f) A foreign filing entity is liable for a civil penalty of not more 28 than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if it transacts business in Indiana 29 without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect 30 all penalties due under this subsection. 31 Sec. 3. 7	organizational documents of the entity provide for a manager
8	or managers, a statement to that effect; and
9	(9) a certificate of existence or similar document authenticated
10	by the secretary of state or other official having custody of 11	business records of the entity in the state or country where the 12	entity was organized.
13	Sec. 4. A registered foreign entity shall deliver to the secretary of 14	state for filing an amendment to its foreign registration statement if 15	there is a change in:
16	(1) the name of the entity;
17	(2) the entity's jurisdiction of formation;
18	(3) an address required by section 3(4) of this chapter; or
19	(4) the information required by IC 23-0.5-4-3(b).
20	Sec. 5. (a) Activities of a foreign filing entity which do not
21	constitute doing business in Indiana under this article include:
22	(1) maintaining, defending, mediating, arbitrating, or settling
23	an action or proceeding;
24	(2) carrying on any activity concerning its internal affairs,
25	including holding meetings of its interest holders or governing
26	persons;
27	(3) maintaining accounts in financial institutions;

29	and registration of securities of the entity or maintaining 30	trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;
31	(5) selling through independent contractors;
32	(6) soliciting or obtaining orders by any means if the orders
33	require acceptance outside Indiana before they become

39	protecting, or maintaining property so acquired;
40	(9) conducting an isolated transaction completed within thirty

Service of 15 process on the secretary of state under this subsection is service on 16 the entity. 13	effect as of the effective date of the termination of the entity's
14	registration and the entity resumes carrying on its business as if the

(a) If the secretary of state determines that one (1) or more 13 grounds exist under section 1 of this chapter for administratively 14 dissolving an entity, the secretary of state shall serve the entity with 15 written notice of the determination unless the secretary of state: 16 (1) receives a receipt showing failure of service of process upon 17 the entity's registered agent at the address of the registered 18 office; and 19 (2) determines that the secretary of state's office has no record 20 of the filing entity's principal office address. 21 (b) If a domestic filing entity, not later than sixty (60) days after 22 service of the notice required by subsection (a), does not cure or 23 demonstrate to the satisfaction of the secretary of state the 24 nonexistence of each ground determined by the secretary of state, the 25 secretary of state shall administratively dissolve the entity by signing 26 a statement of administrative dissolution that recites the grounds for 27 dissolution and the effective date of dissolution. The secretary of 28 state shall file the statement and serve a copy on the entity under 29 IC 23-0.5-4-10. 30 (c) A domestic filing entity that is dissolved administratively 31 continues its existence as the same type of entity but may not carry 32 on any activities except as necessary to wind up its activities and 33 affairs and liquidate its assets in the manner provided in its organic 34 law or to apply for reinstatement under section 3 of this chapter. 35 (d) The administrative dissolution of a domestic filing entity does 36 not terminate the authority of its registered agent. 37 Sec. 3. (a) If the secretary of state denies a domestic filing entity's 36 application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, 37 the secretary of state shall serve the entity with a notice in a record 38 that explains the reasons for denial. 39 (b) An entity may seek judicial review of denial of reinstatement 40 in the circuit or superior court of the county where the entity's 41 principal office (or, if none in Indiana, its registered office) is located 42 not later than thirty (30) days after service of the notice of denial.

14	secretary of state may send any process served on the secretary
15	of state under section 6(e) of this chapter.
16	(c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b), articles of 17	merger may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.
18	(d) If the surviving entity is a domestic entity, its public organic
19	record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of Indiana,
20	except that the public organic record does not need to be signed and
21	may omit any provision that is not required to be included in a
22	restatement of the public organic record.
23	(e) A plan of merger that is signed by all the merging entities and 24	meets all the requirements of subsection (b) may be delivered to the 25	secretary of state for filing instead of articles of merger and on filing
26	has the same effect. If a plan of merger is filed as provided in this 27	subsection, references in this article to articles of merger refer to the 28	plan of merger filed under this subsection.
29	(f) Articles of merger are effective on the date and time of filing
30	or the later date and time specified in the articles of merger.
31	(g) If the surviving entity is a domestic entity, the merger becomes
32	effective when the articles of merger are effective. If the surviving
33	entity is a foreign entity, the merger becomes effective on the later

36	surviving entity; or
37	(2) when the articles of merger are effective.(b) The surviving entity resulting from a merger may often the 38	(h) The surviving entity resulting from a merger may, after the

41	time of the merger, the title to which will be transferred by the
42	merger, a file-stamped copy of the articles of merger. If the articles

1 of merger set forth amendments to the articles of incorporation of 2 the surviving corporation that change its entity name, a file-stamped 3 copy of the articles of merger may be filed for record with the county 4 recorder of each county in Indiana in which the surviving or 5 acquiring entity has any real property at the time the merger 6 becomes effective. A failure to record a copy of the articles of merger 7 under this subsection does not affect the validity of the merger or the 8 change in corporate name. 9 Sec. 6. (a) When a merger under this chapter becomes effective: 10 (1) the surviving entity continues; 11 (2) each merging entity that is not the surviving entity ceases to 12 exist; 13 (3) all property of each merging entity vests in the surviving 14 entity without transfer, reversion, or impairment; 15 (4) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of each merging 16 entity are debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the 17 surviving entity; 18 (5) except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of merger, 19 all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of 20 each merging entity vest in the surviving entity; 21 (6) as to the surviving entity: 22 (A) all its property continues to be vested in it without 23 transfer, reversion, or impairment; 24 (B) it remains subject to all its debts, obligations, and other 25 liabilities; and 26 (C) all its rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and 27 purposes continue to be vested in it; 28 (7) the name of the surviving entity may be substituted for the 29 name of any merging entity that is a party to any pending 30 action or proceeding; 31 (8) the surviving entity's: 32 (A) public organic record, if any, is amended to the extent 33 provided in the articles of merger; and 34 (B) private organic rules that are to be in a record, if any, 35 are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger; 36 (9) a proceeding pending against any party to the merger may 37 be continued as if the merger did not occur or the surviving 38 entity may be substituted in the proceeding for the entity whose 39 existence ceased; and 40 (10) the interests in each merging entity which are to be 41 converted in the merger are converted, and the interest holders 42 of those interests are entitled only the rights provided to them under the plan of merger and to any appraisal rights they have under IC 23-0.6-1-8.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic rules of a merging entity, a merger under this chapter does not give rise to any rights that an interest holder, governing person, or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the merging entity.

8 (c) When a merger under this chapter becomes effective, a person 9 that did not have interest holder liability with respect to any of the 10 merging entities and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the merger has interest 12 holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of that 13 entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that 14 are incurred after the merger becomes effective.

15 (d) When a merger becomes effective, the interest holder liability 16 of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic merging 17 entity with respect to which the person had interest holder liability 18 is subject to the following rules:

19 (1) The merger does not discharge any interest holder liability 20 under the organic law of the domestic merging entity to the 21 extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the 22 merger became effective.

23 (2) The person does not have interest holder liability under the 24 organic law of the domestic merging entity for any debt, 25 obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the merger 26 becomes effective.

27 (3) The organic law of the domestic merging entity continues to 28 apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest 29 holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) as if the merger 30 had not occurred.

31 (4) The person has whatever rights of contribution from any 32 other person as are provided by law other than this article or 33 the organic rules of the domestic merging entity with respect to 34 any interest holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) as 35 if the merger had not occurred.

36 (e) When a merger under this chapter becomes effective, a foreign 37 entity that is the surviving entity may be served with process in this 38 state for the collection and enforcement of any debts, obligations, or 39 other liabilities of a domestic merging entity in accordance with 40 applicable law.

4	Chapter 3. Interest Exchange
5	Sec. 0.3. A share exchange between or among domestic foreign
6	business corporations is governed by IC 23-1-40 and not this chapter.
7	Sec. 0.5. This chapter does not apply to nonprofit corporations.
8	Sec. 1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, by
9	complying with this article:
10	(1) a domestic entity may acquire all of one (1) or more classes
11	or series of interests of another domestic or foreign entity in 12	exchange for interests, securities, obligations, rights to acquire
13	interests or securities, cash, or other property, or any
14	combination of the foregoing; or 15	(2) all of one (1) or more classes or series of interests of a
16	domestic entity may be acquired by another domestic or foreign 17	entity in exchange for interests, securities, obligations, rights to 18	acquire interests or securities, cash, or other property, or any
19	combination of the foregoing.
20	(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, by complying
21	with the provisions of this article applicable to foreign entities, a
22	foreign entity may be the acquiring or acquired entity in an interest
23	exchange under this article if the interest exchange is authorized by 24	the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of organization.
25	Sec. 2. (a) A domestic entity may be the acquired entity in an
26	interest exchange under this article by approving a plan of interest
27	exchange. The plan must be in a record and contain:
28	(1) the name and type of the acquired entity;
29	(2) the name, jurisdiction of organization, and type of the
30	acquiring entity;
31	(3) the manner of converting the interests in the acquired entity
32	into interests, securities, obligations, rights to acquire interests
33	or securities, cash, or other property, or any combination of the 34	foregoing;
35	(4) any proposed amendments to the public organic document
36	or private organic rules that are, or are proposed to be, in a
37	record of the acquired entity;
38	(5) the other terms and conditions of the interest exchange; and
39	(6) any other provision required by the law of this state or the 40	organic rules of the acquired entity.
41	(b) A plan of interest exchange may contain any other provision
42	not prohibited by law.

1	Sec. 3. (a) A plan of interest exchange is not effective unless it has
2	been approved:
3	(1) by a domestic acquired entity:
4	(A) in accordance with the requirements, if any, in its
5	organic law and organic rules for approval of an interest
6	exchange;
7	(B) except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), if neither
8	its organic law nor organic rules provide for approval of an 9	interest exchange, in accordance with the requirements, if 10	any, in its organic law and organic rules for approval of:
11	(i) in the case of an entity that is not a business
12	corporation, a merger, as if the interest exchange were a
13	merger; or
14	(ii) in the case of a business corporation, a merger
15	requiring approval by a vote of the interest holders of the 16	business corporation, as if the interest exchange were that
17	type of merger; or
18	(C) if neither its organic law nor organic rules provide for 19	approval of an interest exchange or a merger described in 20	clause (B)(ii), by all of the interest holders of the entity
21	entitled to vote on or consent to any matter; and
22	(2) in a record, by each interest holder of a domestic acquired
23	entity that will have interest holder liability for liabilities that 24	arise after the interest exchange becomes effective, unless, in the 25	case of an entity that is not a business corporation or nonprofit
26	corporation:
27	(A) the organic rules of the entity provide in a record for the 28	approval of an interest exchange or a merger in which some
29	or all of its interest holders become subject to interest holder
30	liability by the vote or consent of fewer than all the interest
31	holders; and
32	(B) the interest holder voted for or consented in a record to
33	that provision of the organic rules or became an interest
34	holder after the adoption of that provision.
35	(b) An interest exchange involving a foreign acquired entity is not 36	effective unless it is approved by the foreign entity in accordance 37	with the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.
38	(c) Except as otherwise provided in its organic law or organic
39	rules, the interest holders of the acquiring entity are not required to 40	approve the interest exchange.
41	(d) A provision of the organic law of a domestic acquired entity
42	that would permit a merger between the acquired entity and the

1	acquiring entity to be approved without the vote or consent of the 2	interest holders of the acquired entity because of the percentage of 3	interests in the acquired entity held by the acquiring entity does not
4	apply to approval of an interest exchange under subsection (a)(1)(B).
5	Sec. 4. (a) A plan of interest exchange of a domestic acquired
6	entity may be amended:
7	(1) in the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan
8	does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended;
9	or
10	(2) by the governing persons or interest holders of the entity in
11	the manner provided in the plan, but an interest holder that
12	was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the interest
13	exchange is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of 14	the plan that will change:
15	(A) the amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations,
16	rights to acquire interests or securities, cash, or other
17	property, or any combination of the foregoing, to be
18	received by any of the interest holders of the acquired entity
19	under the plan;
20	(B) the public organic document or private organic rules of 21	the acquired entity that will be in effect immediately after
22	the interest exchange becomes effective, except for changes
${23}$	that do not require approval of the interest holders of the 24	acquired entity under its organic law or organic rules; or
25	(C) any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change
26	would adversely affect the interest holder in any material
27	respect.
28	(b) After a plan of interest exchange has been approved by a
29	domestic acquired entity and before articles of interest exchange
30	become effective, the plan may be abandoned:
31	(1) as provided in the plan; or
32	(2) unless prohibited by the plan, in the same manner as the 33	plan was approved.
34	(c) If a plan of interest exchange is abandoned after articles of 35	interest exchange have been filed with the secretary of state, articles
36	of abandonment, signed on behalf of the acquired entity, must be
37	filed with the secretary of state before the time the articles of interest
38	exchange become effective. The articles of abandonment take effect
39	upon filing, and the interest exchange is abandoned and does not
40	become effective. The articles of abandonment must contain:
41	(1) the name of the acquired entity;
••	(-) we have of the argum on only,

1	(2) the date on which the articles of interest exchange were
2	filed; and
3	(3) a statement that the interest exchange has been abandoned
4	in accordance with this section.
5	Sec. 5. (a) Articles of interest exchange must be signed on behalf
6	of a domestic acquired entity and filed with the secretary of state.
7	(b) Articles of interest exchange must contain:
8	(1) the name and type of the acquired entity;
9	(2) the name, jurisdiction of organization, and type of the
10	acquiring entity;
11	(3) if the articles of interest exchange are not to be effective
12	upon filing, the later date and time on which the articles of 13	interest exchange will become effective, which may not be more
14	than ninety (90) days after the date of filing;
15	(4) a statement that the plan of interest exchange was approved
16	by the acquired entity in accordance with this chapter; and
17	(5) any amendments to the acquired entity's public organic
18	document approved as part of the plan of interest exchange.
19	(c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b), articles of 20	interest exchange may contain any other provision not prohibited by 21	law.
22	(d) A plan of interest exchange that is signed on behalf of a
23	domestic acquired entity and meets all of the requirements of 24	subsection (b) may be filed with the secretary of state instead of 25	articles of interest exchange and upon filing has the same effect. If a
26	plan of interest exchange is filed as provided in this subsection,
27	references in this article to articles of interest exchange refer to the 28	plan of interest exchange filed under this subsection.
29	(e) Articles of interest exchange become effective upon the date
30	and time of filing or the later date and time specified in the articles
31	of interest exchange.
32	Sec. 6. (a) When an interest exchange becomes effective:
33	(1) the interests in the acquired entity that are the subject of the 34	interest exchange cease to exist or are converted or exchanged,
35	and the interest holders of those interests are entitled only to
36	the rights provided to them under the plan of interest exchange
37	and to any appraisal rights they have under IC 23-0.6-1-8 and
38	the acquired entity's organic law;
39	(2) the acquiring entity becomes the interest holder of the 40	interests in the acquired entity stated in the plan of interest
41	exchange to be acquired by the acquiring entity;

1 (3) the public organic document, if any, of the acquired entity 2 is amended as provided in the articles of interest exchange and 3 is binding on its interest holders; and 4 (4) the private organic rules of the acquired entity that are to be 5 in a record, if any, are amended to the extent provided in the 6 plan of interest exchange and are binding on and enforceable 7 by: 8 (A) its interest holders; and 9 (B) in the case of an acquired entity that is not a business 10 corporation or nonprofit corporation, any other person that 11 is a party to an agreement that is part of the acquired 12 entity's private organic rules. 13 (b) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic 14 rules of the acquired entity, the interest exchange does not give rise 15 to any rights that an interest holder, governing person, or third party 16 would otherwise have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up 17 of the acquired entity. 18 (c) When an interest exchange becomes effective, a person that 19 did not have interest holder liability with respect to the acquired 20 entity and that becomes subject to interest holder liability with 21 respect to a domestic entity as a result of the interest exchange has 22 interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic 23 law of the entity and only for those liabilities that arise after the 24 interest exchange becomes effective. 25 (d) When an interest exchange under this chapter becomes 26 effective, a foreign entity that is the surviving entity may be served 27 with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of any 28 debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a domestic exchanging entity 29 in accordance with applicable law. 30 (e) When an interest exchange becomes effective, the interest 31 holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a 32 domestic acquired entity with respect to which the person had 33 interest holder liability is as follows: 34 (1) The interest exchange does not discharge any interest holder 35 liability under the organic law of the domestic acquired entity 36 to the extent the interest holder liability arose before the 37 interest exchange became effective. 38 (2) The person does not have interest holder liability under the 39 organic law of the domestic acquired entity for any liability that 40 arises after the interest exchange becomes effective. 41 (3) The organic law of the domestic acquired entity continues to 42 apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest

8	Chapter 4. Conversion
9	Sec. 1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, by
10	complying with this article or other law, a domestic entity may 11	become:
12	(1) a domestic entity of a different type; or 13	(2) a foreign entity of a different type, if the conversion is 14	authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction.
15	(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, by complying
16	with the provisions of this article applicable to foreign entities, a
17	foreign entity may become a domestic entity of a different type if the 18	conversion is authorized by the law of the foreign entity's
19	jurisdiction of formation.
20	(c) This chapter may not be used to effect a transaction that:
21	(1) converts an insurance company organized on the mutual
22	principle to a company organized on a stock share basis;
23	(2) converts a nonprofit corporation to a corporation or other
24	entity; or
25	(3) converts a business corporation or other entity to a
26	nonprofit corporation.
27	(d) If as a result of conversion one (1) or more shareholders or
28	interest holders of a surviving entity become subject to owner
29	liability for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the surviving entity
30	or any other person or entity, approval of the plan of conversion
31	requires each shareholder or interest holder of the converting entity
32	to execute a separate written consent to become subject to owner
33	liability.
34	(e) A nonprofit corporation may not engage in a conversion.
35	Sec. 2. (a) A domestic entity may convert to a different type of 36	entity under this chapter by approving a plan of conversion. The 37	plan must be in a record and contain:
38	(1) the name and type of the converting entity;
39	(2) the name, jurisdiction of organization, and type of the
40	converted entity;
41	(3) the manner of converting the interests in the converting
42	entity into interests, securities, obligations, rights to acquire

1	interests or securities, cash, or other property, or any
2 3	combination of the foregoing;
	(4) the proposed public organic document of the converted
4	entity if it will be a filing entity;
5	(5) the full text of the private organic rules of the converted
6	entity that are proposed to be in a record;
7	(6) the other terms and conditions of the conversion; and
8	(7) any other provision required by the law of this state or the
9	organic rules of the converting entity.
10	(b) A plan of conversion may contain any other provision not
11	prohibited by law.
12	Sec. 3. (a) A plan of conversion is not effective unless it has been
13	approved:
14	(1) by a domestic converting entity:
15	(A) in accordance with the requirements, if any, in its
16	organic rules for approval of a conversion;
17	(B) if its organic rules do not provide for approval of a
18	conversion, in accordance with the requirements, if any, in 19	its organic law and organic rules for approval of:
20	(i) in the case of an entity that is not a business
21	corporation, a merger, as if the conversion were a merger;
22	0 r
23	(ii) in the case of a business corporation, a merger
24	requiring approval by a vote of the interest holders of the 25	business corporation, as if the conversion were that type
26	of merger; or
27	(C) by all of the interest holders of the entity entitled to vote
28	on or consent to any matter if, in the case of any entity that 29	is not a business corporation, neither its organic law nor
30	organic rules provide for approval of a conversion or a
31	merger; and
32	(2) in a record, by each interest holder of a domestic converting
33	entity which will have interest holder liability for debts,
34	obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the 35	conversion becomes effective, unless, in the case of an entity
36	that is not a business corporation:
37	(A) the organic rules of the entity provide in a record for the 38	approval of a conversion or a merger in which some or all of 39	its interest holders become subject to interest holder liability
40	by the vote or consent of fewer than all the interest holders;
41	and

1	(D) the interact holder us to d for an expression dir a record to 1 2	(B) the interest holder voted for or consented in a record to that provision of the organic rules or became an interest $\frac{2}{3}$
3 4	holder after the adoption of that provision. (b) A conversion of a foreign converting entity is not effective 4 5
	unless it is approved by the foreign entity in accordance with the law
6 7	of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of organization.
8	Sec. 4. (a) A plan of conversion of a domestic converting entity may be amended:
10	(1) in the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended;
10	or
12	(2) by its governing persons or interest holders in the manner
12	provided in the plan, but an interest holder that was entitled to 13	vote on or consent to approval of the conversion is entitled to 15	vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will
16	change:
17	(A) the amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations,
18	money, other property, rights to acquire interests or
19	securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be
20	received by any of the interest holders of the converting
20	entity under the plan;
22	(B) the public organic record, if any, or private organic rules
23	of the converted entity which will be in effect immediately
24	after the conversion becomes effective, except for changes
25	that do not require approval of the interest holders of the 26	converted entity under its organic law or organic rules; or
27	(C) any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change
28	would adversely affect the interest holder in any material
29	respect.
30	(b) After a plan of conversion has been approved and before
31	articles of conversion become effective, the plan may be abandoned
32	as provided in the plan or, unless prohibited by the plan, in the same
33	manner as the plan was approved.
34	(c) If a plan of conversion is abandoned after articles of 35	conversion have been delivered to the secretary of state for filing,
36	articles of abandonment, signed by the converting entity, must be 37	delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the articles of 38	conversion become effective. Articles of abandonment take effect on 39	filing, and the conversion is abandoned and does not become 40	effective. Articles of abandonment must contain:
41	(1) the name of the converting entity;

1	(2) the date on which articles of conversion were filed by the
2	secretary of state; and
3	(3) a statement that the conversion has been abandoned in
4	accordance with this section.
5	Sec. 5. (a) Articles of conversion must be signed by the converting
6	entity and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.
7	(b) Articles of conversion must contain:
8	(1) the name, jurisdiction of organization, and type of the 9	converting entity;
10	(2) the name (which must satisfy the requirements of applicable
11	law), jurisdiction of organization, and type of the converted
12	entity;
13	(3) if the articles of conversion are not to be effective upon
14	filing, the later date and time on which it will become effective,
15	which may not be more than ninety (90) days after the date of 16	filing;
17	(4) if the converting entity is a domestic entity, a statement that
18	the plan of conversion was approved in accordance with this
19	article or, if the converting entity is a foreign entity, a statement
20	that the conversion was approved by the foreign entity in 21	accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation;
22	(5) if the converted entity is a domestic filing entity, its public
23	organic record, as an attachment; and
24	(6) if the converted entity is a foreign entity, a mailing address
25	to which the secretary of state may send any process served on 26	the secretary of state under section 6(e) of this chapter.
27	(c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b), articles of 28	conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.
29	(d) If the converted entity is a domestic entity, its public organic
30	record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of this state,
31	except that the public organic record does not need to be signed and
32	may omit any provision that is not required to be included in a
33	restatement of the public organic record.
34	(e) A plan of conversion that is signed by a domestic converting
35	entity and meets all the requirements of subsection (b) may be 36	delivered to the secretary of state for filing instead of articles of 37	conversion and on filing has the same effect. If a plan of conversion
38	is filed as provided in this subsection, references in this article to 39	articles of conversion refer to the plan of conversion filed under this
40	subsection.
41	(f) Articles of conversion are effective upon the date and time of 42	filing or the later date and time specified in the articles of conversion.

1	(g) If the converted entity is a domestic entity, the conversion
2	becomes effective when the articles of conversion are effective. If the $\frac{2}{3}$	converted entity is a foreign entity, the conversion becomes effective
4	on the later of:
5	(1) the date and time provided by the organic law of the 6	converted entity; or
7	(2) when the articles of conversion are effective.
8	Sec. 6. (a) When a conversion becomes effective:
9	(1) the converted entity is:
10	(A) organized under and subject to the organic law of the 11	converted entity; and
12	(B) the same entity without interruption as the converting
13	entity;
14	(2) all property of the converting entity continues to be vested
15	in the converted entity without transfer, reversion, or
16	impairment;
17	(3) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converting
18	entity continue as debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the
19	converted entity;
20	(4) except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of 21	conversion, all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and
22	purposes of the converting entity remain in the converted
23	entity;
24	(5) the name of the converted entity may be substituted for the 25	name of the converting entity in any pending action or
26	proceeding;
27	(6) if a converted entity is a filing entity, its public organic
28	record is effective;
29	(7) the private organic rules of the converted entity which are 30	to be in a record, if any, approved as part of the plan of 31	conversion are effective;
32	(8) a proceeding pending against any party to the conversion
33	may be continued as if the conversion did not occur or the 34	surviving entity may be substituted in the proceeding for the 35	entity whose existence ceased; and
36	(9) the interests in the converting entity are converted, and the 37	interest holders of the converting entity are entitled only to the 38	rights provided to them under the plan of conversion and to any 39 40	appraisal rights they have under IC 23-0.6-1-8 and the 40 41	converting entity's organic law.
41 42	(b) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic rules of the converting ontity, the conversion does not give rise to any 42	rules of the converting entity, the conversion does not give rise to any rights that an interest holder, governing person, or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the converting entity.

(c) When a conversion becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the converting entity and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of a conversion has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

(d) When a conversion becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic converting entity with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:

(1) The conversion does not discharge any interest holder liability under the organic law of a domestic converting entity to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the conversion became effective.

19(2) The person does not have interest holder liability under the20organic law of a domestic converting entity for any debt,21obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the22conversion becomes effective.

23 (3) The organic law of the domestic converting entity continues 24 to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest 25 holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) as if the 26 conversion had not occurred.

(4) The person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person as are provided by other law or the organic rules of the domestic converting entity with respect to any interest holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) as if the conversion had not occurred.

(e) When a conversion becomes effective, a foreign entity that is the converted entity may be served with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of any of its debts, obligations, and other liabilities in accordance with applicable law.

(f) If the converting entity is a registered foreign entity, its registration to do business in this state is canceled when the conversion becomes effective.

(g) A conversion does not require the entity to wind up its affairs and does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the entity.

Sec. 1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, by 1 2 complying with this article, a domestic entity may become a 3 domestic entity of the same type of entity in a foreign jurisdiction if 4 the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction. 5 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, by complying 6 with the provisions of this article applicable to foreign entities, a 7 foreign entity may become a domestic entity of the same type of 8 entity in this state if the domestication is authorized by the law of the 9 foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation. 10 Sec. 2. (a) A domestic entity may become a foreign entity in a 11 domestication by approving a plan of domestication. The plan must 12 be in a record and contain: 13 (1) the name and type of entity of the domesticating entity; 14 (2) the name and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated 15 entity; 16 (3) the manner of converting the interests in the domesticating 17 entity into interests, securities, obligations, money, other 18 property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any 19 combination of the foregoing; 20 (4) the proposed public organic record of the domesticated 21 entity if it is a filing entity; 22 (5) the full text of the private organic rules of the domesticated 23 entity that are proposed to be in a record; 24 (6) the other terms and conditions of the domestication; and 25 (7) any other provision required by the law of this state or the 26 organic rules of the domesticating entity. 27 (b) In addition to the requirements of subsection (a), a plan of 28 domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by 29 law. 30 Sec. 3. (a) A plan of domestication is not effective unless it has 31 been approved: 32 (1) by a domestic domesticating entity: 33 (A) in accordance with the requirements, if any, in its 34 organic rules for approval of a domestication; 35 (B) if its organic rules do not provide for approval of a 36 domestication, in accordance with the requirements, if any, 37 in its organic law and organic rules for approval of: 38 (i) in the case of an entity that is not a business 39 corporation, a merger, as if the domestication were a 40 merger; or 41 (ii) in the case of a business corporation, a merger 42 requiring approval by a vote of the interest holders of the

1	business corporation, as if the domestication were that
2	type of merger; or
3	(C) by all of the interest holders of the entity entitled to vote
4	on or consent to any matter if, in the case of an entity that is 5	not a business corporation, neither its organic law nor 6	organic rules provide for approval of a domestication or
7	merger; and
8	(2) in a record, by each interest holder of a domestic 9	domesticating entity that will have interest holder liability for 10	debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after 11	the domestication becomes effective, unless, in the case of an
12	entity that is not a business corporation or nonprofit
13	corporation:
14	(A) the organic rules of the entity in a record provide for the 15	approval of a domestication or merger in which some or all
16	of its interest holders become subject to interest holder
17	liability by the vote or consent of fewer than all the interest
18	holders; and
19	(B) the interest holder consented in a record to or voted for
20	that provision of the organic rules or became an interest
21	holder after the adoption of that provision.
22	(b) A domestication of a foreign domesticating entity is not 23	effective unless it is approved in accordance with the law of the 24	foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.
25	Sec. 4. (a) A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating
26	entity may be amended:
27	(1) in the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan
28	does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended;
29	or
30	(2) by its governing persons or interest holders of the entity in
31	the manner provided in the plan, but an interest holder that
32	was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the 33	domestication is entitled to vote on or consent to any
34	amendment of the plan that will change:
35	(A) the amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations,
36	money, other property, rights to acquire interests or
37	securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be
38	received by any of the interest holders of the domesticating
39	entity under the plan;
40	(B) the public organic record, if any, or private organic rules
41	of the domesticated entity that will be in effect immediately
42	after the domestication becomes effective, except for changes

1	that do not require approval of the interest holders of the
2	domesticated entity under its organic law or organic rules;
3	or
4	(C) any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change
5	would adversely affect the interest holder in any material
6	respect.
7	(b) After a plan of domestication has been approved by a
8	domestic domesticating entity and before articles of domestication
9	becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the 10	plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic domesticating entity
11	may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.
12	(c) If a plan of domestication is abandoned after articles of 13	domestication have been delivered to the secretary of state for filing,
14	articles of abandonment, signed by the entity, must be delivered to 15	the secretary of state for filing before the time the articles of 16	domestication become effective. The articles of abandonment take 17	effect on filing, and the domestication is abandoned and does not 18	become effective. Articles of abandonment must contain:
19	(1) the name of the domesticating entity;
20	(2) the date on which articles of domestication were filed by the
21	secretary of state; and
22	(3) a statement that the domestication has been abandoned in
23	accordance with this section.
24	Sec. 5. (a) Articles of domestication must be signed by the 25	domesticating entity and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.
26	(b) Articles of domestication must contain:
27	(1) the name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the 28	domesticating entity;
29	(2) the name (which must satisfy the requirements of applicable
30	law) and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated entity;
31	(3) if the articles of domestication are not to be effective upon
32	filing, the later date and time on which the articles of 33	domestication will become effective, which may not be more
34	than ninety (90) days after the date of filing;
35	(4) if the domesticating entity is a domestic entity, a statement
36	that the plan of domestication was approved in accordance with 37	this article or, if the domesticating entity is a foreign entity, a
38	statement that the domestication was approved in accordance 39	with the law of its jurisdiction of formation;
40	(5) if the domesticated entity is a domestic filing entity, its
41	public organic record, as an attachment; and

1 (6) if the domesticated entity is a foreign entity that is not a 2 registered foreign entity, a mailing address to which the 3 secretary of state may send any process served on the secretary 4 of state pursuant to section 6(e) of this chapter. 5 (c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b), articles of 6 domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by 7 law. 8 (d) If the domesticated entity is a domestic entity, its public 9 organic record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of 10 this state, but the public organic record does not need to be signed 11 and may omit any provision that is not required to be included in a 12 restatement of the public organic record. 13 (e) A plan of domestication that is signed by a domesticating 14 domestic entity and meets all the requirements of subsection (b) may 15 be delivered to the secretary of state for filing instead of articles of 16 domestication and on filing has the same effect. If a plan of 17 domestication is filed as provided in this subsection, references in 18 this article to articles of domestication refer to the plan of 19 domestication filed under this subsection. 20 (f) Articles of domestication are effective on the date and time of 21 filing or the later date and time specified in the articles of 22 domestication. 23 (g) A domestication in which the domesticated entity is a domestic 24 entity becomes effective when the articles of domestication are 25 effective. A domestication in which the domesticated entity is a 26 foreign entity becomes effective on the later of: 27 (1) the date and time provided by the organic law of the 28 domesticated entity; or 29 (2) when the articles of domestication become effective. 30 Sec. 6. (a) When a domestication becomes effective: 31 (1) the domesticated entity is: 32 (A) organized under and subject to the organic law of the 33 domesticated entity; and 34 (B) the same entity without interruption as the 35 domesticating entity; 36 (2) all property of the domesticating entity continues to be 37 vested in the domesticated entity without transfer, reversion, or 38 impairment; 39 (3) all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the 40 domesticating entity continue as debts, obligations, and other

41 liabilities of the domesticated entity;

1 (4) except as provided by law or the plan of domestication, all 2 the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the 3 domesticating entity remain in the domesticated entity; 4 (5) the name of the domesticated entity may be substituted for 5 the name of the domesticating entity in any pending action or 6 proceeding; 7 (6) if the domesticated entity is a filing entity, its public organic 8 record is effective; 9 (7) the private organic rules of the domesticated entity that are 10 to be in a record, if any, are approved as part of the plan of 11 domestication; 12 (8) the interests in the domesticating entity are converted to the 13 extent and as approved in connection with the domestication, 14 and the interest holders of the domesticating entity are entitled 15 only to the rights provided to them under the plan of 16 domestication and to any appraisal rights they have under 17 IC 23-0.6-1-8 and the domesticating entity's organic law; and 18 (9) an action or proceeding pending against the entity continues 19 against the entity as if the domestication had not occurred. 20 (b) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic 21 rules of the domesticating entity, the domestication does not give rise 22 to any rights that an interest holder, governing person, or third party 23 would otherwise have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up 24 of the domesticating entity. 25 (c) When a domestication becomes effective, a person that did not 26 have interest holder liability with respect to the domesticating entity 27 and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a 28 domestic entity as a result of the domestication has interest holder 29 liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity 30 and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are 31 incurred after the domestication becomes effective. 32 (d) When a domestication becomes effective, the interest holder 33 liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic 34 domesticating entity with respect to which the person had interest 35 holder liability is subject to the following rules: 36 (1) The domestication does not discharge any interest holder 37 liability under the organic law of the domesticating domestic 38 entity to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred 39 before the domestication became effective. 40 (2) The person does not have interest holder liability under the 41 organic law of a domestic domesticating entity for any debt,

1 obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the 2 domestication becomes effective. 3 (3) The organic law of a domestic domesticating entity 4 continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any 5 interest holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) as if the 6 domestication had not occurred. 7 (4) The person has whatever rights of contribution from any 8 other person as are provided by other law or the organic rules 9 of a domestic domesticating entity with respect to any interest 10 holder liability preserved under subdivision (1) as if the 11 domestication had not occurred. 12 (e) When a domestication becomes effective, a foreign entity that 13 is the domesticated entity may be served with process in this state for 14 the collection and enforcement of any of its debts, obligations, and 15 other liabilities in accordance with applicable law. 16 (f) If the domesticating entity is a registered foreign entity, the 17 registration to do business in this state of the domesticating entity is 18 canceled when the domestication becomes effective. 19 (g) A domestication does not require the entity to wind up its 20 affairs and does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the entity. 21 Chapter 6. Miscellaneous Provisions 22 Sec. 1. IC 23-1-39-4 IS REPEALED [EFFECTIVE 13 JANUARY 1, 2018]. Sec. 4. (a) This section does not apply to any 14 corporation that has a class of voting shares registered with the Securities 15 and Exchange Commission under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange 16 Act of 1934. 17 (b) Unless the articles of incorporation specifically prohibit the 18 adoption of a bylaw under this section, alter the vote specified in 19 IC 23-1-30-9(a), or provide for cumulative voting, a corporation may 20elect in the corporation's bylaws to be governed in the election of 21 directors as follows: 22 (1) Each vote entitled to be cast may be voted for or against up to 23 that number of candidates that is equal to the number of directors 24 to be elected, or a shareholder may indicate an abstention, but 25 without cumulating the votes. 26 (2) To be elected, a nominee must have received a plurality of the 27 votes cast by holders of shares entitled to vote in the election at a 28 meeting at which a quorum is present. However, a nominee who is 29 elected but receives more votes against than for election shall serve 30 as a director for a term that ends on the date that is the earlier of: 31 (A) ninety (90) days after the date on which the voting results 32 are determined: or 33 (B) the date on which an individual is selected by the board of 34 directors to fill the office held by the director, which selection constitutes the filling of a vacancy by the board to which 35 36 IC 23-1-33-9 applies. 37 Subject to subdivision (3), a nominee who is elected but receives 38 more votes against than for election shall not serve as a director 39 beyond the ninety (90) day period described in clause (A). 40 (3) The board of directors may select a qualified individual to fill 41 the office held by a director who received more votes against than 42 for election.

1	(c) Subsection (b) does not apply to an election of directors by a

6	by the board of directors that is not more than fourteen (14) days
7	before notice is given of the meeting at which the election is to 8	occur;
9	there are more candidates for election by the voting group than the 10	number of directors to be elected, one (1) or more of whom are properly
11	proposed by shareholders. An individual is not considered a candidate for 12	purposes of this subsection if the board of directors determines before the

16	section may be repealed:
17	(1) if originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the 27	shareholders.

28	(b) For a plan of merger or share exchange to be approved:
29	(1) the board of directors must recommend the plan of merger or
30	share exchange to the shareholders, unless the board of directors

37	surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger;
38	and
39	(4) the number of participating shares outstanding immediately
40	after the merger, plus the number of participating shares issuable as

26	(b) For purposes of subsections (d)(7), (e), (f), and (g),
27	"organizational documents" means:

29	incorporation of the corporation; and
30	(2) if used in reference to a limited liability company, the operating

39	(d) Notwithstanding the requirements of section 3 of this chapter or 40	IC 23-0.6-2-3, if the subsidiary of the parent corporation party to the 41	merger is a limited liability company, and unless expressly required by 42	a corporation's articles of incorporation, a vote of shareholders of a parent

1	and a state of the
1	corporation is not necessary to authorize a merger with or into a single
2 3	direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the parent corporation if all the following apply:
4	(1) As a result of the merger, the parent corporation or its successor
5	becomes or remains a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of 14	having the same:

15 16	(A) designations, rights, powers, and preferences; and
	(B) qualifications, limitations, and restrictions;

22	(5) The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the holding
23	company immediately following the effective time of the merger
25	contain provisions identical to the articles of incorporation and
26	by laws of the parent corporation immediately before the effective
20	time of the merger. However, the following are not required to be
28	identical under this subdivision:
29	(A) Any provisions regarding:
30	(i) the incorporator or incorporators;
31	(i) the corporate or entity name;
32	(iii) the registered office and agent;
33	(iv) the initial board of directors; or
34	(v) the initial subscribers for shares.
35	(B) Any provisions contained in any amendment to the articles
36	of incorporation as were necessary to effect a change, exchange,
37	reclassification, subdivision, combination, or cancellation of
38	shares, if the change, exchange, reclassification, subdivision,
39	combination, or cancellation has become effective.
40	(6) The directors of the parent corporation become or remain the

3	the merger contain provisions identical in substance to the articles
4	of incorporation of the parent corporation immediately before the 5	effective time of the merger. However, subject to subsection (e), the 6	following are not required to be identical under this subdivision:
7	(A) Any provisions regarding:
8	(i) the incorporator or incorporators;
9	(i) the corporate or entity name;
10	(iii) the registered office and agent;
11	(iv) the initial board of directors;
12	(v) the initial subscribers for shares;
13	(v) references to members rather than shareholders;
14	(vi) references to interests, units, or the like rather than 15	shares; or
16	(viii) references to managers, managing members, or other
17	members of the governing body rather than directors.
18	(B) Any provisions contained in any amendment to the articles
19	of incorporation as were necessary to effect a change, exchange,
20	reclassification, subdivision, combination, or cancellation of 20
21	shares, if the change, exchange, reclassification, subdivision,
22	combination, or cancellation has become effective.
	(8) The shareholders of the parent corporation do not recognize gain

25	of directors of the parent corporation.
26	(e) The organizational documents of the surviving entity must be 27	amended in the merger to contain, if not contained in the organizational 28	documents, provisions that require:
29	(1) any act or transaction by or involving the surviving entity, other 30	than the election or removal of:
31	(A) directors or managers;
32	(B) managing members; or
33	(C) other members of the governing body of the surviving entity;
34	that requires for its adoption under this article or its organizational 35	documents that the approval of the shareholders or members of the 36	surviving entity must, by specific reference to this section, require 37	the approval of the shareholders of the holding company (or any 38	successor by merger), by the same vote as is required by this article
39	or by the organizational documents of the surviving entity.
40	However, for purposes of this subdivision, any surviving entity that
41	is not a corporation shall include in the amendment a requirement
42	that the approval of the shareholders of the holding company be

89

1	obtained for any act or transaction by or involving the surviving entity, other than the election or removal of directors or managers, 2 3	managing members, or other members of the governing body of the 4	surviving entity, which would require the approval of the 5	shareholders of the surviving entity if the surviving entity were a
6	corporation subject to this article;
7	(2) any amendment of the organizational documents of a surviving
8	entity that is not a corporation, which amendment would, if adopted
9	by a corporation subject to this article, be required to be included in 10	the articles of incorporation of the corporation, must, by specific 11	reference to this section, require the approval of the shareholders of 12	the holding company (or any successor by merger), by the same
12	vote as is required by this article or by the organizational documents
13	of the surviving entity; and 15	(3) the business and affairs of a surviving entity that is not a
16	corporation must be managed by or under the direction of a board
17	of directors, board of managers, or other governing body consisting 18	of individuals who are subject to the same standards of conduct
19	applicable to, and who are liable for breach of the standards of 20	conduct to the same extent as, directors of a corporation subject to 20	this article.
22	(f) The organizational documents of the surviving entity may be
$\frac{-2}{23}$	amended in the merger:
24	(1) to reduce the number of classes and shares of capital stock or
25	other equity interests or units that the surviving entity is authorized
26	to issue; and
27	(2) to eliminate any provisions described in IC 23-1-33-6.
28	(g) Nothing in subsection (e) or any provision of a surviving entity's
29	organizational documents required by subsection (e) may be considered
30	or construed to require approval of the shareholders of the holding
31	company to elect or remove directors or managers, managing members,
32	or other members of the governing body of the surviving entity.
33	(h) From and after the effective time of a merger adopted by a parent
34	corporation by action of its board of directors and without any vote of 35	shareholders under this section:
36	(1) to the extent the restrictions of IC 23-1-42 or IC 23-1-43 applied
37	to the parent corporation or to any of its shareholders at the 38	effective time of the merger, the restrictions must apply to the 39	holding company and such shareholders immediately after the 40	effective time of the merger as though the holding company were
41	the parent corporation, and all shares of the holding company
42	acquired in the merger shall for purposes of IC 23-1-42 and

1 IC 23-1-43 be considered to have been acquired at the time that the 2 shares of the parent corporation converted in the merger were 3 acquired, and provided further that: 4 (A) any shares that immediately before the effective time of the 5 merger were not control shares within the meaning of 6 IC 23-1-42 do not solely by reason of the merger become control 7 shares of the holding company; and 8 (B) any shareholder who immediately before the effective time 9 of the merger was not an interested shareholder within the meaning of IC 23-1-43 does not solely by reason of the merger 10 become an interested shareholder of the holding company; 11 12 (2) if the corporate name of the holding company immediately 13 following the effective time of the merger is the same as the 14 corporate name of the parent corporation immediately before the 15 effective time of the merger, the shares of capital stock of the holding company into which the shares of capital stock of the parent 16 corporation are converted in the merger shall be represented by the 17 18 share certificates that previously represented shares of capital stock 19 of the parent corporation; and 20 (3) to the extent a shareholder of the parent corporation 21 immediately before the merger had standing to institute or maintain 22 derivative litigation on behalf of the parent corporation, this section 23 may not be considered or construed to limit or extinguish that 24 standing. 25 (i) If a plan of merger is adopted by a parent corporation by action of 26 its board of directors and without any vote of shareholders under this 27 section, the secretary or assistant secretary of the parent corporation shall 28 certify in the articles of merger filed under section 5 of this chapter or 29 IC 23-0.6-2-5 that the plan of merger has been adopted under this section and that the conditions specified in subsections (d), (e), and (f) have been 30 31 satisfied. 32 (i) After the requirements of subsection (i) are met, the articles of 33 merger shall then be filed and become effective, in accordance with 34 section 5 of this chapter or IC 23-0.6-2-5. The filing constitutes a 35 representation by the person who executes the articles of merger that the 36 facts stated in the articles of merger remain true immediately before the 37 filing. 38 SECTION 19. IC 23-1-41-2, AS AMENDED BY P.L.133-2009, 39 SECTION 35, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE 40 JANUARY 1, 2018]: Sec. 2. (a) A sale, lease, exchange, or other 41 disposition of assets, other than a disposition described in section 1 of this chapter, requires approval of the corporation's shareholders if the 42

1 disposition would leave the corporation without a significant continuing 2 business activity. If a corporation retains a business activity that 3 represented at least twenty-five percent (25%) of total assets at the end 4 of the most recently completed fiscal year, and twenty-five percent (25%) 5 of either income from continuing operations before taxes or revenues 6 from continuing operations for the fiscal year, in each case of the 7 corporation and the corporation's subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, the 8 corporation is conclusively considered to have retained a significant 9 continuing business activity.

10 (b) A disposition that requires approval of the shareholders under subsection (a) shall be initiated by a resolution by the board of directors 11 authorizing the disposition. After adoption of the resolution, the board of 12 13 directors shall submit the proposed disposition to the shareholders for the 14 shareholder's approval. The board of directors shall transmit to the 15 shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the proposed disposition, unless the board of directors makes a determination 16 17 that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances the 18 board of directors should not make the recommendation, in which case 19 the board of directors shall transmit to the shareholders the basis for that 20 determination.

(c) The board of directors may condition the board of directors' 22 submission of a disposition to the shareholders under subsection (b) on 23 any basis.

The 31 notice must state that the purpose or one (1) of the purposes of the 32 meeting is to consider the disposition and must contain a description of 33 the disposition, including the terms and conditions of the disposition and the consideration to be received by the corporation. 34 35

(e) Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors (acting under subsection (c)) requires a greater vote, or a greater number of votes to be present, the approval of a disposition by the shareholders requires the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the disposition exists.

41 (f) After a disposition has been approved by the shareholders under 42 subsection (b), and at any time before the disposition has been

IC 23-16-3-7, AS AMENDED BY P.L.119-2015, 9 SECTION 42, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE 10 JANUARY 1, 2018]: Sec. 7.
