The tax credit allowed by this-section paragraph is applicable for 17 18 the tax year 2008 for any contributions made on and after July 1, 2008, 19 and for the tax years 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 for any contributions 20 made during the entire tax year. The amount of the credit allowed by this 21 section paragraph shall not exceed 60% of the total amount contributed 22 during the taxable year by the taxpayer to a community college or a 23 technical college located in Kansas for such purposes. The amount of the 24 credit allowed by this section paragraph shall not exceed 50% of the total 25 amount contributed during the taxable year by the taxpayer to a 26 postsecondary educational institution for such purposes. If the amount of the tax 31 credit for a taxpayer who contributes to a postsecondary educational 32 institution exceeds the taxpayer's income tax liability for the taxable year, 33 the amount which exceeds the tax liability may be carried over for 34 deduction from the taxpayer's income tax liability in the next succeeding 35 taxable year or years until the total amount of the tax credit has been 36 deducted from tax liability, except that no such tax credit shall be carried over for deduction after the third taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which the contribution is made. Prior to the issuance of any tax credits pursuant to this—section paragraph, the structure of the process in which contributions received by a community college, a technical college or a postsecondary educational institution qualify as tax credits allowed and issued pursuant to this—section paragraph shall be developed by a community college, a technical college and a postsecondary educational institution in consultation with the secretary of revenue and the foundation or endowment association of any such community college, technical college or postsecondary educational institution in a manner that complies with requirements specified in the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, so that contributions qualify as charitable contributions allowable as deductions from federal adjusted gross income.
