1	(4) Determining whether a person is acting as a controller or processor with respect
2	to a specific processing of data is a fact-based determination that depends upon
3	the context in which personal data is to be processed. A processor that continues 4	to adhere to a controller's instructions with respect to a specific processing of 5	personal data remains a processor.
6	→ SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO
7	READ AS FOLLOWS:
8	(1) Controllers shall conduct and document a data protection impact assessment of 9	each of the following processing activities involving personal data:
10	(a) The processing of personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising;
11	(b) The processing of personal data for the purposes of selling of personal data;
12	(c) The processing of personal data for the purposes of profiling, where the 13	profiling presents a reasonably foreseeable risk of:
14	1. Unfair or deceptive treatment of consumers or disparate impact on 15	consumers;
16	2. Financial, physical, or reputational injury to consumers;
17	3. A physical or other intrusion upon the solitude or seclusion, or the 18	private affairs or concerns, of consumers, where an intrusion would 19	be offensive to a reasonable person; or 20	4. Other substantial injury to consumers;
21	(d) The processing of sensitive data; and
22	(e) Any processing of personal data that presents a heightened risk of harm to 23	consumers.
24	(2) Data protection impact assessments conducted under this section shall identify
25	and weigh the benefits that may flow, directly and indirectly, from the processing 26	to the controller, the consumer, other stakeholders, and the public against the 27	potential risks to the rights of the consumer associated with such processing, as

Page 17 of 25

XXXX 2/1/2024 6:22 PM Jacketed

1		mitigated by safeguards that can be employed by the controller to reduce such
2		risk. The use of de-identified data and the reasonable expectations of consumers,
3		as well as the context of the processing of personal data and the relationship
4		between the controller and the consumer whose personal data will be processed,
5		shall be factored into this assessment by the controller.
6	(3)	The Attorney General may request, pursuant to an investigative demand, that a 7		controller disclose any data protection impact assessment that is relevant to an 8		investigation conducted by the Attorney General, and the controller shall make 9		the data protection impact assessment available to the Attorney General. The 10		Attorney General may evaluate the data protection impact assessments for 11		compliance with the requirements of Sections 1 to 10 of this Act.
12	(4)	Data protection impact assessments are confidential and exempt from disclosure,
13		public inspection, and copying under KRS 61.870 to KRS 61.884.
14	(5)	The disclosure of a data protection impact assessment pursuant to a request from 15		the Attorney General under subsection (3) of this section does not constitute a 16		waiver of the attorney-client privilege or work product protection with respect to 17		the assessment and any information contained in the assessment.
18	(6)	A single data protection assessment may address a comparable set of processing
19		operations that include similar activities.
20	(7)	Data protection assessments conducted by a controller for the purpose of 21		compliance with other laws or regulations may comply under this section if the 22		assessments have a reasonably comparable scope and effect.
23	(8)	Data protection assessment requirements shall apply to processing activities
24		created or generated on or after June 1, 2026.
25		→ SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO
26	REA	AD AS FOLLOWS:

1		(a) Take reasonable measures to ensure the data cannot be associated with a
2		natural person;
3		(b) Publicly commit to maintaining and using de-identified data without

7	(2)	Nothing in Sections 1 to 10 of this Act shall be construed to require a controller
8		or processor to:
9		(a) Re-identify de-identified data or pseudonymous data; or 10		(b) Maintain data in identifiable form, or collect, obtain, retain, or access any 11		data or technology, in order to be capable of associating an authenticated
12		consumer request with personal data.
13	(3)	Nothing in Sections 1 to 10 of this Act shall be construed to require a controller
14		or processor to comply with an authenticated consumer rights request pursuant to 15		Section 3 of this Act if:
16		(a) The controller is not reasonably capable of associating the request with the 17		personal data or it would be unreasonably burdensome for the controller to 18		associate the request with the personal data;
19		(b) The controller does not use the personal data to recognize or respond to the 20		specific consumer who is the subject of the personal data, or associate the 21		personal data with other personal data about the same specific consumer;
22		and
23		(c) The controller does not sell the personal data to any third party or otherwise
24		voluntarily disclose the personal data to any third party other than a
25		processor, except as otherwise permitted in this section.
26	(4)	The consumer rights contained in Section 3 of this Act shall not apply to 27		pseudonymous data in cases where the controller is able to demonstrate any

1		information necessary to identify the consumer is kept separately and is subject to 2		appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure that the personal
3		data is not attributed to an identified or identifiable natural person.
4	(5)	A controller that discloses pseudonymous data or de-identified data shall exercise
5		reasonable oversight to monitor compliance with any contractual commitments to 6		which the pseudonymous data or de-identified data is subject and shall take 7		appropriate steps to address any breaches of those contractual commitments.
8		→SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO
9	REA	AD AS FOLLOWS:
10	(1)	Nothing in Sections 1 to 10 of this Act shall be construed to restrict a controller's
11		or processor's ability to:
12		(a) Comply with federal, state, or local laws or regulations;
13		(b) Comply with a civil, criminal, or regulatory inquiry, investigation,
14		subpoena, or summons by federal, state, local, or other governmental
15		authorities;
16		(c) Cooperate with law enforcement agencies concerning conduct or activity
17		that the controller or processor reasonably and in good faith believes may 18		violate federal, state, or local laws, rules, or regulations;
19		(d) Investigate, establish, exercise, prepare for, or defend legal claims;
20		(e) Provide a product or service specifically requested by a consumer or a
21		parent or guardian of a known child;
22		(f) Perform a contract to which the consumer or parent or guardian of a
23		known child is a party, including fulfilling the terms of a written warranty;
24		(g) Take steps at the request of the consumer or parent or guardian of a known
25		child prior to entering into a contract;
26		(f) Take immediate steps to protect an interest that is essential for the life or 27		physical safety of the consumer or of another natural person, and where the

1		processing cannot be manifestly based on another legal basis;
2		(g) Prevent, detect, protect against, or respond to security incidents, identity
3		theft, fraud, harassment, malicious or deceptive activities, or any illegal
4		activity; preserve the integrity or security of systems; or investigate, report,
5		or prosecute those responsible for any such action;
6		(h) Engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific or statistical research in the 7		public interest that adheres to all other applicable ethics and privacy laws
8		and is approved, monitored, and governed by an institutional review board,
9		or similar independent oversight entities that determine:
10		1. If the deletion of the information is likely to provide substantial
11		benefits that do not exclusively accrue to the controller;
12		2. The expected benefits of the research outweigh the privacy risks; and 13		3. If the controller has implemented reasonable safeguards to mitigate 14		privacy risks associated with research, including any risks associated 15		with re-identification; or
16		(i) Assist another controller, processor, or third party with any of the 17		obligations under this subsection.
18	(2)	The obligations imposed on controllers or processors under Sections 1 to 10 of 19		this Act shall not restrict a controller's or processor's ability to collect, use, or 20		retain data to:
21		(a) Conduct internal research to develop, improve, or repair products, services,
22		or technology;
23		(b) Effectuate a product recall;
24		(c) Identify and repair technical errors that impair existing or intended
25		functionality; or

1	consumer's existing relationship with the controller or are otherwise
2	compatible with processing data in furtherance of the provision of a produc
3	or service specifically requested by a consumer or a parent or guardian of a
4	known child or the performance of a contract to which the consumer or a
5	parent or guardian of a known child is a party.
6	(3) The obligations imposed on controllers or processors under Sections 1 to 10 of 7	this Act shall not apply to a controller or processor if compliance under Sections
8	1 to 10 of this Act would violate an evidentiary privilege under the laws of this 9	Commonwealth. Nothing in Sections 1 to 10 of this Act shall be construed to 10	prevent a controller or processor from providing personal data concerning a
11	consumer to a person covered by an evidentiary privilege under the laws of this 12	Commonwealth as part of a privileged communication.
13	(4) A controller or processor that discloses personal data to a third-party controller
14	or processor, in compliance with the requirements of Sections 1 to 10 of this Act
15	is not in violation of Sections 1 to 10 of this Act if the third-party controller or 16	processor that receives and processes such personal data is in violation of 17	Sections 1 to 10 of this Act, provided that, at the time of disclosing the personal 18	data, the disclosing controller or processor did not have actual knowledge that the 19	recipient intended to commit a violation. A third-party controller or processor
20	receiving personal data from a controller or processor in compliance with the 21	requirements of Sections 1 to 10 of this Act is likewise not in violation of Sections
22	1 to 10 of this Act for the transgressions of the controller or processor from which 23	it receives such personal data.
24	(5) Nothing in Sections 1 to 10 of this Act shall be construed as an obligation
25	imposed on controllers and processors that adversely affects the privacy or other
26	rights or freedoms of any persons, including but not limited to the right of free
27	speech pursuant to the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, or

1	applies to personal data by a person in the course of a purely personal or
2	household activity.
3	(6) Personal data processed by a controller pursuant to this section shall not be 4	processed for any purpose other than those expressly listed in this section unless
5	otherwise allowed by Sections 1 to 10 of this Act. Personal data processed by a 6	controller pursuant to this section may be processed to the extent that such 7	processing is:
8	(a) Reasonably necessary and proportionate to the purposes listed in this 9	section; and
10	(b) Adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary in relation to the 11	specific purposes listed in this section. Personal data collected, used, or 12	retained pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall, where applicable,
13	take into account the nature and purpose or purposes of such collection,
14	use, or retention. The data shall be subject to reasonable administrative,
15	technical, and physical measures to protect the confidentiality, integrity,
16	and accessibility of personal data and to reduce reasonably foreseeable risks
17	of harm to consumers relating to the collection, use, or retention of 18	personal data.
19	(7) If a controller processes personal data pursuant to an exemption in this section,
20	the controller bears the burden of demonstrating that such processing qualifies
21	for the exemption and complies with the requirements in this section.
22	(8) Processing personal data for the purposes expressly identified in subsection (1) of 23	this section shall not by itself make an entity a controller with respect to such 24	processing.
25	→SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 367 IS CREATED TO

15		been cured and that no further violations shall occur, no action for damages
16		under subsection (3) of this section shall be initiated against the controller or 17		processor.
18	(3)	If a controller or processor continues to violate Sections 1 to 10 of this Act

23		Sections 1 to 10 of this Act.
24	(4)	Nothing in Sections 1 to 10 of this Act or any other law, regulation, or the 25		equivalent shall be construed as providing the basis for, or give rise to, a private 26		right of action for violations of Sections 1 to 10 of this Act.
27	(5)	The Attorney General may recover reasonable expenses incurred in investigating
