

1 AN ACT relating to the human rights of unborn children and declaring an 2 emergency.

3 WHEREAS, moral and philosophical concepts of dignity hold that a human being is 4 entitled to receive ethical and humane treatment and is to be respected and valued in all 5 phases of life; and

6 WHEREAS, the Declaration of Independence recognizes the fundamental truth that 7 all people have been endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among 8 these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; and

9 WHEREAS, the Constitution of this Commonwealth guarantees that all human 10 beings have the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberty as well as seeking 11 and pursuing their safety and happiness; and

12 WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the United States of America has recognized 13 that states have a legitimate interest in protecting the life of the unborn; and

14 WHEREAS, recognizing the human rights of an unborn child does not contravene
15 prior Supreme Court jurisprudence nor undermine a woman's right to self-determination 16 or bodily autonomy, but instead upholds the state's legitimate interest in protecting the 17 life of the unborn; and

18 WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has further held that the states, with a rational basis 19 to act and without creating an undue burden on women, may bar certain procedures for 20 the purpose of regulating the medical profession so as to promote respect for life, 21 including the life of the unborn. Gonzales v. Carhart, 550 U.S. 124, 158 (2007); and

22 WHEREAS, giving the life of the unborn equal consideration as that of the mother 23 does not create an undue burden on the mother; and

24 WHEREAS, the Commonwealth of Kentucky statutorily recognizes an unborn child 25 as a human being from conception onward, without regard to age, health, or condition of 26 dependency; and

27 WHEREAS, it is an indisputable scientific fact that by the end of ten weeks the

1 unborn child can be seen on an ultrasound to have fingers, hands, arms, toes, feet, legs, 2 eyelids, and ears further confirming the statutory acknowledgment that the unborn child is 3 a human being; and

4 WHEREAS, certain abortive medical procedures resulting in dismemberment, 5 crushing, or human vivisection are brutal for unborn children in contravention of their 6 unalienable rights that replicates past indiscretions of a disregard for the rights of others; 7 and

8 WHEREAS, Justice Kennedy has recognized the brutality of these procedures by 9 stating, "The fetus, in many cases, dies just as a human adult or child would: It bleeds to 10 death as it is torn limb from limb." Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914, 958 (2000); and

11 WHEREAS, Justice Stevens, with whom Justice Ginsburg concurred, reflected on 12 the dichotomy of upholding the ban on partial-birth abortions but not dilation and 13 extraction procedures by writing, "The notion that either of these two equally gruesome 14 procedures performed at this late stage of gestation is more akin to infanticide than the 15 other, or that the State furthers any legitimate interest by banning one but not the other, is 16 simply irrational." Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914, 946-947 (2000); and

17 WHEREAS, past failures to uphold and respect the unalienable rights and dignity of 18 other human beings protected by the laws of the Commonwealth and this great nation 19 resulted in unfair and detrimental practices that still affect the lives of so many 20 Kentuckians and Americans today;

21 NOW, THEREFORE,

22 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:
