

A JOINT RESOLUTION designating honorary names for various roads and bridges and directing the placement of honorary roadside signs.

WHEREAS, Daniel Ellis was born April 22, 1982, to Kelly and Nancy West Ellis of Campbellsville; and

WHEREAS, Daniel Ellis, a quiet, hardworking young man who dreamed of a career in law enforcement, graduated from Taylor County High School in 2000; and

WHEREAS, Daniel Ellis then attended and graduated from Eastern Kentucky University in 2005 with a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice, where he met his loving wife, the former Katie Gruenwald; and

WHEREAS, Officer Daniel Ellis began working for the Richmond Police Department on August 11, 2008; and

WHEREAS, to the citizens of Richmond, Officer Daniel Ellis was the kind of police officer you want in your community: hardworking, courteous, and respectful in a job where you often interact with people on some of the worst days of their lives; and

WHEREAS, on November 4, 2015, Officer Daniel Ellis, while entering a house he was told was unoccupied in order to investigate a robbery, was cowardly ambushed and shot in the head by an occupant of the building; and

WHEREAS, Officer Daniel Ellis succumbed to his wounds two days later, passing away on November 6, 2015, at the age of 33; and

WHEREAS, the tragic death of Officer Daniel Ellis has not only galvanized the Richmond community, but has struck a chord across the state and region, with over 7,000 attending his memorial service at Eastern Kentucky University, and law enforcement officers from as far away as Alabama and New York joining in the 12-mile-long procession that carried Officer Ellis the nearly 100 miles to his final resting place; and

WHEREAS, at his memorial, Officer Daniel Ellis, who had recently been promoted and was set to begin duty as a detective, was remembered by Richmond Police Chief Larry Brock, who said, "He turned out to be a great police officer. He was one of those guys that just got it and got it early...When Daniel sank his teeth into something he just wouldn't let it go. That's what he was doing last week...Our lives will never be the same again, the lives of his fellow officers and of his family will never be the same"; and

WHEREAS, in eulogizing Officer Daniel Ellis, Phillip Shumake, minister of East End Church of Christ in Lexington, relayed a story that Ellis's wife, Katie, had told him. While on duty one day, Ellis had seen a man in business clothes walking down the road carrying a tent. When asked, the man told Ellis that he had a job interview in the morning and didn't know a way to get there other than spending the night in a tent nearby. Ellis paid to get him a room, to which Shumake added, "Underneath his badge was a heart full of kindness"; and

WHEREAS, Officer Daniel Ellis was a member of the Madison County F.O.P. Lodge #47, the Kentucky Narcotics Association, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, and the East End Church of Christ in Lexington; and

WHEREAS, other than his wife Katie and his parents, Officer Daniel Ellis is survived by his son, Luke Michael Ellis; two brothers, Jeremy (Amanda) West and Eric (Heather) Ellis; one sister, Kelli Marie (Jason) Ellis Bush; his paternal grandmother Clara Ellis Schoenberger; his mother- and father-in-law, Nancy and Greg Gruenwald; his sister-in-law Amy (Dylan) Gruenwald Holt; and several nieces and nephews; and

WHEREAS, the senseless and tragic end of Officer Daniel Ellis's life has left a void that cannot be filled, and he is mourned across the length and breadth of this Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, in that spirit, it is indeed fitting and appropriate that this Commonwealth offer a lasting, tangible tribute to the memory of our fallen hero, no matter how inadequate it might be; and

WHEREAS, from time to time, the General Assembly has seen fit to honor various Kentuckians by naming portions of state highways and erecting commemorative roadway signs in their honor; and

WHEREAS, these Kentuckians have come from all walks of life, held a multitude of jobs, and had a variety of accomplishments that made them deserving of the honor; and

WHEREAS, these individuals have included former Governors, former members of the General Assembly, decorated veterans, slain law enforcement officers, local elected officials, astronauts, doctors, educators, distinguished athletes, and civic leaders; and

WHEREAS, every citizen of the Commonwealth owes a great debt of gratitude to the patriotic men and women killed and wounded in service to their country in times of great need; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly has often honored the veterans of this state by naming portions of several roads, from interstates to small two-lane country roads, in their honor; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly again sees fit to honor a group of individuals who have made the lives of their fellow Kentuckians better and brought honor and respect to the Commonwealth;
