

1           A JOINT RESOLUTION directing the placement of a sign on the Country Music
2 Highway in Pike County in honor of Jack Adkins.

3           WHEREAS, Jack Adkins was born June 10, 1922, in Regina, Kentucky. He was the 4 youngest of 8 children; and

5           WHEREAS, when Jack Adkins was two years old, his father died in West Virginia 6 of poisoning. He knew hard times as a child; and

7           WHEREAS, at the age of 12, Jack Adkins acquired his first guitar by trading a .22 8 caliber rifle and a bushel of corn for it; and

9           WHEREAS, when Jack Adkins was 16 years old, his mother passed away. Jack 10 drifted around after this, later earning him the name "Hobo"; and

11           WHEREAS, Jack Adkins spent a few months in the Civilian Conservation Corps
12 during the depression. He work in the coal mines, long enough to know he wanted to do 13 something else. He was later a carpenter and he was once employed by a gas company; 14 and

15           WHEREAS, Jack Adkins chose to serve this great country by becoming a member 16 of the United States Navy where he was stationed in Corpus Christi, Texas; and

17           WHEREAS, sometime after his service in the Navy, Jack Adkins started playing the 18 guitar professionally. He traveled the tri-state area of Kentucky, Virginia, and West 19 Virginia. He had a weekly live show at WLSI in Pikeville where he became acquainted 20 with the Lonesome Pine Fiddlers; and

21           WHEREAS, Jack Adkins is known for his group, Hobo Jack and his Kentucky Pals.
22 The Kentucky Pals consisted of Corbett Newsome, Estil Stewart, and Walt Hensley; and

23           WHEREAS, Hobo Jack and his Kentucky Pals played a lot of square dances and pie 24 suppers; and

25           WHEREAS, Jack Adkins also played at WNKY in Neon, WTCW in Whitesburg, 26 WPKE in Pikeville, and WPRT in Prestonsburg; and

27           WHEREAS, Jack Adkins would often travel to Nashville, Tennessee, to perform at

1 the Ernest Tubb Record Shop while being broadcast over WSM. He also was a guest 2 artist at the Grand Ole Opry; and

3 WHEREAS, Jack Adkins is memorable for his song "Kentucky School Bus" which 4 is about a tragic 1958 accident where 26 children and the bus driver died when the bus 5 plunged into the river in Floyd County. The song is still being played today, not only in 6 the United States, but in places as far away as Japan; and

7 WHEREAS, in the 1960s, Jack Adkins relocated to Cincinnati and opened a 8 recording studio; and

9 WHEREAS, in 1975, Jack Adkins returned to Elkhorn City and opened a small 10 studio and record shop; and

11 WHEREAS, Jack Adkins has written over 300 songs in his lifetime. He became an 12 Old Regular Baptist preacher and gave up secular music. He focused on writing and 13 recording gospel music; and

14 WHEREAS, on June 2, 1977, Jack Adkins traversed these earthly bounds at the 15 Methodist Hospital in Pikeville due to heart failure. He never knew that artists such as 16 Ricky Skaggs and Alison Krauss would end up recording his songs. His work has been 17 included in several anthology recordings, used in a documentary on deep coal mining, and 18 by various churches;

19 NOW, THEREFORE,

20 Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:
