6 Coaches Association (WBCA) as the 2024 National Assistant Coach of the Year for the 7 National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III level; and

8           WHEREAS, the award is presented annually to an assistant coach based on their 9 commitment to their program, student-athletes, and head coach; their impact coaching on 10 court; their mentorship and impact on other coaches; and their professional manner and 11 attitude; and

12           WHEREAS, the award is another in a series of recognitions received by Hannah 13 Varel, who was a WBCA "Thirty Under 30" honoree in 2023, identifying her as one of 14 30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches under the age of 30 at all levels of the 15 collegiate game; and

16           WHEREAS, Hannah Varel is graduate of the University of Missouri, where she 17 earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in Accountancy while playing club 18 basketball; and

19           WHEREAS, Hannah Varel became a certified public accountant after graduation, 20 and, while working for an accounting firm, Varel gained coaching experience as an 21 assistant women's basketball coach at Columbia High School in Columbia, Missouri, 22 from 2015 through 2018; and

23           WHEREAS, after two years as an assistant coach at Hanover College, Hannah 24 Varel joined the coaching staff at Transylvania; and

25           WHEREAS, since joining the Pioneers in the 2020-2021 season, Hannah Varel has 26 helped the Pioneers win four consecutive Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference
27 Championships while helping lead the team to three straight undefeated regular seasons,

1 three Elite Eight appearances, back-to-back NCAA Final-Four appearances, and the 2023
2 National Championship; and

3 WHEREAS, Transylvania women's basketball Head Coach Juli Fulks says of 4 Hannah Varel, "Hannah is an exceptionally hardworking coach with a natural ability to 5 connect with players on and off the court. She understands what championship basketball 6 requires and is an excellent addition to our staff and basketball family.";
