

1 A RESOLUTION honoring the Warren Central High School Dragons, 2023
2 KHSAA Boys' Sweet Sixteen Basketball Champions.

3 WHEREAS, on March 18, 2023, before a crowd of 11,664 fans at Rupp Arena in 4 Lexington, the Warren Central High School Dragons defeated the Cardinals of George
5 Rogers Clark High School by a score of 64 to 60 to capture the 2023 Kentucky High
6 School Athletic Association (KHSAA) Boys' Sweet Sixteen Basketball Championship; 7 and

8 WHEREAS, in the championship game, a rematch from last year, the Dragons held 9 a 10-point lead after three quarters, then held off a furious Cardinal rally to avenge their 10 loss in 2023 with a balanced effort highlighted by three players, Damarion Walkup, Kade 11 Unseld, and Omari Glover, each scoring 17 points; and

12 WHEREAS, the state championship was for Warren Central was the second in 13 school history, with the Dragons having won the title in 2004; and

14 WHEREAS, the victory in the championship game was the capstone of a brilliant 15 season in which the Dragons compiled a record of 36 wins against a single loss, won their 16 last 27 games in a row, and outscored their opponents by an average of 23 points a game;
17 and

18 WHEREAS, the Dragons were an incredibly well-balanced team in terms of 19 scoring, with all of the team's five starters, Chappelle Whitney, Kade Unseld, Damarion
20 Walkup, Omari Glover, and Izayah Villafuerte, averaging at least nine points per game 21 over the course of the season; and

22 WHEREAS, commenting on his team's selflessness, Dragons' Head Coach William 23 Unseld said, "They've shared the ball all year. Any of these guys could be somewhere 24 else and average 25 or 30 points a game. It's hard to guard when you have five really 25 good basketball players. I like playing teams when they have one or two"; and

26 WHEREAS, Chappelle Whitney was named the tournament's Most Valuable 27 Player, while Kade Unseld and Damarion Walkup were also named to the All-

1 Tournament Team; and

2 WHEREAS, other members of the Dragons included seniors Demetrius Barnett,
3 Malik Jefferson, and Tayvion Wells; juniors Braylon Boards, Abdihakim Dahir, Cadin
4 Hammer, and Elijah Starks; sophomore Jarek Kirk, and freshman Johan Pratt; and

5 WHEREAS, the Dragons were coached by Head Coach William Unseld, along with 6 Assistant Coaches Cedric Gumm, Ethan Meredith, Chris Porter-Bunton, and Leland R.
7 Taylor; and

8 WHEREAS, this Dragons team, with four senior starters, shook off the 9 disappointment of a runner-up finish last year and dedicated themselves to the 10 championship goal they achieved; and

11 WHEREAS, the talent, dedication, and resilience of the Warren Central Dragons 12 has resulted in these young men penning their names forever in the annals of Kentucky 13 high school basketball history, and it is fitting and proper that they be publicly 14 recognized;

15 NOW, THEREFORE,
