

1 A RESOLUTION recognizing Muslim Day at the State Capitol.

2 WHEREAS, Kentucky is an open-minded, welcoming Commonwealth that 3 celebrates the diversity of its citizens, which includes a significant number of Muslims; 4 and

5 WHEREAS, Muslims have been present from the earliest times in the history of 6 America and Kentucky, as evidenced by the African Muslims who were enslaved and 7 brought to this country, and by the largely Arab Muslims who came to Kentucky in the 8 late 1800s and early 1900s; and

9 WHEREAS, according to prominent scholars, approximately 10 percent of enslaved
10 Africans brought to these shores were of Muslim origin, and one of them was most likely 11 Sambo Cunningham, who was living in Lincoln County in the 1850s; he was born in 12 Africa in 1780, and the name Sambo is a common name among various Muslim peoples 13 in the area which is now Gambia, Senegal, and Mali; and

14 WHEREAS, a significant number of Arabs from what is now Lebanon came to 15 America and Kentucky in the late 1800s and early 1900s; most of them were Christian 16 but a small number of Muslims came along with them, and among the Muslims were the 17 brothers Mahmoud and Hameed Kassem, who immigrated in 1901 and established a 18 general store in Letcher County, not far from the store of their fellow immigrant Srur 19 Dawahare; and

20 WHEREAS, the number of Muslims in Kentucky increased significantly starting in 21 the 1960s and doubling every decade afterwards; the increase has been due to 22 immigration from all parts of the Muslim world and conversion to Islam largely by 23 African Americans; and

24 WHEREAS, the present-day Kentucky Muslim community is extremely diverse, 25 consistent of African Americans, White Americans, and Muslims from every part of the 26 Muslim world including South Asia, Southeast Asia, China, Iran, Turkey, Europe, the 27 Middle East, North Africa, West Africa, East Africa, and Southern Africa; and

1 WHEREAS, the present-day Muslim community is located throughout Kentucky, as 2 evidenced by 37 mosques spread throughout the Commonwealth from Paducah to 3 Prestonsburg; and

4 WHEREAS, the present-day Kentucky Muslim community is a positive contributor
5 to the health and economic well-being of Kentucky, with Muslims serving as doctors, 6 professors, auto workers, small business owners, and in numerous other professions; and

7 WHEREAS, one of the most famous Muslims in America and the world hails from 8 Kentucky: Muhammad Ali; and

9 WHEREAS, the Kentucky Muslim community has embraced the identity of being 10 American Muslims who strive for the common good of their Kentucky and American 11 society;

12 NOW, THEREFORE,

13 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 14 Kentucky:

15 ➔Section 1. The Senate hereby recognizes January 22, 2020, as the first annual 16 Muslim Day at the State Capitol in order to celebrate the rich diversity of Kentucky and 17 to acknowledge the positive presence of Muslims in our Commonwealth.

18 ➔Section 2. When the Senate adjourns this day, it does so in honor and 19 recognition of Muslim Day at the State Capitol.

20 ➔Section 3. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this 21 Resolution to Senator Reginald Thomas.
