NOTARIES: Provides relative to provisional notaries

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Deletes the repeal of the Aug. 1, 2016, sunset provision and instead extends the sunset date from August 1, 2016, to August 1, 2017.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law provides that any person who resides in a parish with a population of less than 40,000, and who has passed the uniform statewide examination, except for any performance assessment component, during examinations administered after January 1, 2013, and before August 1, 2016, may be provisionally appointed to the office of notary public in and for that parish upon fulfillment of all requirements provided by law and upon meeting all other qualifications necessary to be appointed to the office of notary public in this state.

Present law provides that present law shall expire on Aug. 1, 2016, and any commission granted pursuant to present law shall also expire on that date, except if the notary has, subsequent to issuance of a commission, passed all components of the examination provided by R.S. 35:191.1 on or before Aug. 1, 2016.

Proposed law provides that present law shall expire on August 1, 2017, and any commission granted pursuant to present law shall also expire on that date, except if the notary has, subsequent to issuance of a commission, passed all components of the examination provided by R.S. 35:191.1 on or before August 1, 2017.

(Amends R.S. 35:191(W)(1)(b) and (9))
