Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law provides for the responsibilities of local education agencies in providing special education and related services to students with exceptionalities as defined in present law.

Proposed law adds that a student with an exceptionality, except a gifted or talented student, shall be assigned to a school as requested by the parent if all of the following conditions are met:

- (1) The parent submits a written request to the local education agency responsible for the student and the local education agency having jurisdiction over the school being requested including a recommendation from licensed physicians who have treated the student during the year prior.
- (2) The local education agency responsible for the student and the local education agency having jurisdiction over the school being requested by the parent enter into an agreement for the assignment of the student to the requested school.
- (3) The requested school is at least 10 miles from the school the student is assigned to and at least 15 miles from the student's home.
- (4) The requested school is not located in a public school district in which 50% or more of the public schools in the district are charter schools and 50% or more of the public schools in the district participate in a single application and enrollment process.

Present law defines "local education agency" as a public board of education or other public authority legally constituted within La. for administrative control and direction of or to perform a service function for public elementary or secondary schools in a city, parish, or other local public school district or other political subdivision. The term includes an education service agency and special schools and school districts and any other public institution or agency having administrative control and direction of a public elementary or secondary school.
