Provides with respect to the payment of court costs and attorney fees in certain cases

Proposed law provides for the payment of certain costs, including court costs, attorneys fees and expert witness costs and fees regarding the following civil matters: signing of pleadings, peremptory exception, ex parte, motion to strike, motion for judgment on pleadings, affidavits, affirmative defenses, and alternative defenses.

Proposed law requires district courts to maintain records of awards of attorney fees and court costs and report such records to the judicial administrator of the Supreme Court.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation may result in an increase in local fund expenditures as a result of maintaining records related to the awarding of attorney fees and court costs. The district court judges will submit a report to the Judicial Council that includes the number of requests for attorney fees and court costs, the total number of awards of attorney fees and court costs, and the provision of the Civil Code Procedure that authorizes the award of attorney fees and court costs.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
