Subject: Removes Verified Petitions From Certain Proceedings

CHILDREN'S CODE

EG NO IMPACT See Note

Removes the requirement that certain petitions be verified. (8/1/14)

In the Children's Code, present law requires that petitions filed in child in need of care (CINC) proceedings, family in need of services (FINS) proceedings, juvenile delinquency proceedings and involuntary termination of parental right proceedings be verified. Proposed law removes requirement that such petitions be verified. Proposed law is effective 08/01/2014.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed legislation removes the requirement that petitions must be verified (sworn) by the petitioner in juvenile court proceedings for child in need of care (CINC), family in need of services (FINS), juvenile delinquency and involuntary termination of parental right cases. Removing the verification requirement on petitions will not impact governmental expenditures, as this measure is not anticipated to change court procedures in juvenile court proceedings.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
