

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

SCR 63

2016 Regular Session

Peacock

Requests the La. State Law Institute to study the feasibility of whether revisions to present laws of the state are necessary in light of other states' laws that expressly authorize a testator to refer, in his testament, to a written statement or list in order to dispose of certain items of corporeal movable property.

Requires a report of to the legislature no later than February 1, 2017.
