jurisdiction who is deployed or has received written orders to deploy with the United States military or any reserve component thereof.

- (2) "Deployment" means military service in compliance with mandatory written orders, unaccompanied by any family member, for combat operations, contingency operations, peacekeeping operations, temporary duty, a remote tour of duty, or other active service.
- (3) "Order" means any custody or visitation judgment, decree, or order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state or any judgment of another state which has been made executory in this state.

§359.2. Final order; modification prohibited

The court shall not enter a final order modifying the existing terms of a custody or visitation order until ninety days after the termination of deployment; however, if the matter was fully tried by a court prior to deployment, the court may enter a final order at any time.

§359.3. Material change in circumstances

Deployment or the potential for future deployment alone shall not constitute a material change in circumstances for the permanent modification of a custody or visitation order.

§359.4. Temporary modification

A. An existing order of custody or visitation may be temporarily modified to reasonably accommodate the deployment of a parent. Any such order issued in accordance with the provisions of this Subpart shall be entered as a temporary order by the court.

B. Unless the court determines that it is not in the best interest of the child, a temporary modification order shall grant the deploying parent reasonable custody or visitation during periods of approved military leave if the existing order granted the deploying parent custody or visitation prior to deployment. All restrictions on the custody or visitation in the existing order shall remain in effect in the temporary modification order.

HB NO. 1156 ENROLLED

C. A temporary modification order shall specify that deployment is the reason for modification and shall require the other parent to provide the court and the deploying parent with written notice thirty days prior to a change of address or telephone number.

D. The court shall have an expedited hearing on any custody or visitation matters, upon the motion of a parent and for good cause shown, when military duties prevent the deploying parent from personally appearing at a hearing scheduled regularly on the docket.

§359.5. Termination of temporary modification order

A. A temporary modification order terminates by operation of law upon the completion of deployment, and the prior order shall be reinstated. If the other parent has relocated with the child in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 9:355.1 et seq., custody or visitation shall be exercised where the child resides, pending further orders of the court.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection A of this Section, the court may, upon motion alleging immediate danger or irreparable harm to the child, grant an expedited hearing on the termination of the temporary modification order and the reinstatement of the prior order, or the court may grant an exparte order of temporary custody prior to the reinstatement of the prior order. Any exparte temporary order shall comply with the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure Article 3945.

§359.6. Delegation of visitation

The court may delegate some or all of the deploying parent's visitation, upon motion of the deploying parent, to a family member with a substantial relationship to the child if the court determines it is in the best interest of the child. For the purposes of this Section, the court shall consider Civil Code Article 136 in determining the best interest of the child. Delegated visitation shall not create standing to assert separate visitation rights. Delegated visitation shall terminate by operation of law in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 9:359.5 or upon a showing that the delegated visitation is no longer in the best interest of the child.

A. When military necessity precludes court adjudication prior to deployment, the parties shall cooperate in custody or visitation matters.

When the court declines to grant or extend a stay of proceedings in accordance with the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. Appendix Section 521-522, upon motion of either parent or upon its own motion, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the child in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 9:345.

§359.11. Jurisdiction

When a court of this state has issued a custody or visitation order, the absence of a child from this state during the deployment of a parent shall be a "temporary absence" for the purposes of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act and this state shall retain exclusive continuing jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 13:1814. The deployment of a parent may not be used as a basis to assert inconvenience of the forum in accordance with the provisions of R.S. 13:1819.
