LeBas HB No. 1380

Abstract: Establishes penalties for home inspectors who fail to renew their license within the 12-month or 36-month period after expiration of the license.

Present law provides that any licensee who fails to timely renew his license may thereafter renew, within the 12-month period immediately following the expiration date of the active license, by paying the appropriate renewal and delinquent fees, filing a renewal application, and completing all continuing education requirements accruing during the period of delinquency.

Present law further provides that failure to renew an expired license during the 12-month period shall result in forfeiture of renewal rights and shall require the former licensee to apply as an initial applicant and meet all requirements of an initial applicant.

Proposed law provides that failure to renew an expired license during the 12-month period shall require the licensee to pass the board approved licensing examination in addition to paying the appropriate renewal and delinquent fees, filing a renewal application, and completing all continuing education requirements accruing during the period of delinquency.

Proposed law further provides that failure to renew an expired license during the 36-month period immediately following the expiration date of the active license shall also require the licensee to retake and pass 90 hours of classroom education as set forth in the rules and regulations of the La. State Board for Home Inspectors and to take a standards of practice and code of ethics report writing seminar offered by the board or an education provider approved by the board.
