Dixon HB No. 1392

Abstract: Opens the position of deputy or assistant chief in the classified police service to competitive testing. Provides local fire and police civil service boards the option to restrict such competitive tests to applicants from within their respective departments.

Proposed law retains present law to the extent it applies to competitive tests open to applicants from outside of the respective department. Proposed law requires public notice for all competitive tests which are closed to outside applicants to be provided pursuant to present law provisions governing notice of promotional tests.

Present law provides that competitive tests in the police civil service in municipalities with population between 13,000 and 250,000 are to be held only as the needs of the service require and shall be given for classes comprising only the following duties or positions:

- (1) Chief of the departmental service.
- (2) The entrance or lowest ranking class in the classified service.
- (3) The entrance or lowest ranking class in any group of classes where the various classes have been divided into groups by the classification plan.
- (4) Operation, maintenance, and supervision of radio, fire alarm, police alarm, and other signal systems.
- (5) Automotive or fire apparatus mechanics and repairmen.
- (6) Secretary to the chief.
- (7) Departmental records clerk.
- (8) For a position in any class in the classified service after reasonable efforts by preceding methods provided by this Part have failed to produce names of persons eligible for regular appointment thereto.

Proposed law retains present law and adds the following position: the second highest class in the classified police service at the rank of either assistant chief or deputy chief.

Present law provides that admission to competitive tests in the police civil service in municipalities with population between 13,000 and 250,000 will be open to all persons who meet the requirements provided by present law and the rules of the board.

Proposed law retains present law and adds a provision that admission to competitive tests provided for in accordance with proposed law may be limited to regular employees of the municipal police department for which the test is given in the manner provided by the rules of the board.

Present law provides that, relative to tests to determine the eligibility of applicants for entry upon the promotional and competitive employment lists in the police civil service in small municipalities, public notice for all tests to be given on a competitive basis is to be published at least four times during the 30-day period in the official journal of the municipality, parish, or fire protection district, as the case may be, in which such tests are to be held. Present law further provides that this notice of examination need not state the exact date on which tests shall be administered, but all applicants shall be advised of the date, place, and time to report for an announced test at least five days in advance thereof in any manner the board may prescribe.

Proposed law retains present law to the extent it applies to competitive tests open to applicants from outside of the respective department. Proposed law requires public notice for all competitive tests which are closed to outside applicants to be provided pursuant to present law provisions governing notice of promotional tests.

Present law provides that competitive tests in the police civil service in small municipalities are to be held only as the needs of the service require and will be given for classes comprising only the following duties or positions:

- (1) Chief of the departmental service.
- (2) The entrance or lowest ranking class in the classified service.
- (3) The entrance or lowest ranking class in any group of classes where the various classes have been divided into groups by the classification plan.
- (4) Operation, maintenance, and supervision of radio, fire alarm, police alarm, and other signal systems.
- (5) Automotive or fire apparatus mechanics and repairmen.
- (6) Secretary to the chief.
- (7) Departmental records clerk.
- (8) For a position in any class in the classified service after reasonable efforts by preceding methods provided by this Part have failed to produce names of persons eligible for regular appointment thereto.

Proposed law retains present law and adds the following position: the second highest class in the classified police service at the rank of either assistant chief or deputy chief.

Present law provides that admission to competitive tests in the police civil service in small municipalities will be open to all persons who meet the requirements provided by present law and the rules of the board.

Proposed law retains present law and adds a provision that admission to competitive tests provided for in accordance with proposed law may be limited to regular employees of the municipal police department for which the test is given in the manner provided by the rules of the board.

Effective July 1, 2010.
