HB No. 18

Abstract: Provides that the board of commissioners of the Sulphur Industrial Development District shall meet on a quarterly basis rather than monthly.

Present law provides for the creation of the Sulphur Industrial Development District. The district is governed by a board of commissioners consisting of six members selected by the city of Sulphur.

Present law provides that the board of commissioners shall meet in regular session once each month and shall also meet in special session when the president of the board convenes them or on the written request of four members.

Proposed law provides that the board of commissioners shall meet in regular session on a quarterly basis; otherwise retains present law.
