CRIME/SEX OFFENSES: Authorizes the use of administrative subpoenas when investigating sex offenses involving children through use of a computer

1 AN ACT

2 To enact Code of Criminal Procedure Article 732.1, relative to subpoenas; to authorize the
3 use of administrative subpoenas for the production of information in investigations
4 of certain sex offenses or in the exploitation of children; to provide for the types of 5 information which may be disclosed pursuant to an administrative subpoena; to 6 provide for information which may not be disclosed pursuant to an administrative 7 subpoena; and to provide for related matters.

8 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

9 Section 1. Code of Criminal Procedure Article 732.1 is hereby enacted to read as 10 follows:

11 Art. 732.1. Subpoena duces tecum regarding sex offenses against victims who are 12 minors

13 A. The Department of Public Safety and Corrections, office of state police, 14 the office of the attorney general, any agency that is a member of the Department of 15 Justice Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, or the sheriff's office

1 investigating any sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541 where the victim is a minor,
2 or the offender reasonably believes that the victim is a minor, shall have the
3 administrative authority to issue in writing and cause to be served a subpoena
4 requiring the production and testimony described in Paragraph B of this Article upon
5 reasonable cause to believe that an Internet service account, or online identifier as 6 defined in R.S. 15:541(20), has been used in the commission of the offense, or in the 7 exploitation or attempted exploitation of children.

8 B. Except as provided in Paragraph C of this Article, a subpoena issued
9 under this Article may require the production of the following records or other
10 documentation relevant to the investigation:

11 (1) Electronic mail address.

12 (2) Internet username.

13 (3) Internet protocol address.

14 (4) Name of account holder.

15 (5) Billing and service address.

16 (6) Telephone number.

17 (7) Account status.

18 (8) Method of access to the Internet.

19 (9) Automatic number identification records if access is by modem.

20 C. The following information shall not be subject to disclosure pursuant to 21 an administrative subpoena issued pursuant to the provisions of this Article but shall 22 be subject to disclosure pursuant to other lawful process:

23 (1) In-transit electronic communications.

24 (2) Account memberships related to Internet groups, newsgroups, mailing
25 lists, or specific areas of interest.

26 (3) Account passwords.

27 (4) Account content, including electronic mail in any form, address books,
28 contacts, financial records, web surfing history, Internet proxy content, or files or 29 other digital documents stored with the account or pursuant to use of the account.

1 D. A subpoena issued pursuant to this Article shall describe the objects
 2 required to be produced and shall prescribe a return date with a reasonable period of
 3 time within which the objects can be assembled and made available.

4 E. If no case or proceeding arises from the production of records or other
 5 documentation pursuant to this Section and the time limitation for initiation of 6 prosecution has expired, the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, office of 7 state police, the sheriff's office, or the office of the attorney general shall destroy the 8 records and documentation.

9 F. Except as provided in this Article, any information, records, or data
 10 reported or obtained pursuant to a subpoena authorized by the provisions of this 11 Article shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed unless in connection with 12 a criminal case related to the subpoenaed materials.

13 G. Any administrative subpoena issued pursuant to this Article shall comply
 14 with the provisions of 18 USC §2703(c)(2).

HB No. 193

Abstract: Authorizes certain law enforcement agencies to issue an administrative subpoena to obtain information regarding an Internet account used in the commission of a sex offense or in the exploitation of children.

Proposed law provides that the office of state police, the attorney general's office, a member of the Dept. of Justice Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, or the sheriff investigating a sex offense where the victim is a minor, or the offender reasonably believes the victim is a minor, and upon reasonable cause to believe that an Internet service account or online identifier has been used in the commission of the offense, or in the exploitation or attempted exploitation of children, may issue an administrative subpoena to obtain certain information related to the Internet account or online identifier.

Proposed law provides that the administrative subpoena may be used to obtain the electronic mail address, Internet username, Internet protocol address, name of the account holder, billing and service address, telephone number, account status, method of access to the Internet, and the automatic number identification records if access is by modem.

Proposed law provides that any additional information has to be obtained through other lawful process.

Proposed law provides for the destruction of any of the information upon expiration of time limitations for prosecution.

Proposed law provides that administrative subpoenas issued pursuant to proposed law shall comply with federal laws governing records concerning an electronic communication service or remote computing service.

(Adds C.Cr.P. Art. 732.1)
