17 A. Careless operation of a watercraft is the operation of a watercraft in a 18 careless manner so as to endanger the life, limb, or property of any person, when 19 such operation constitutes a violation of any of the following requirements:

20 (1) Vessels passing head-on shall each keep to their respective right.

20 avoid impeding the navigation of all vessels.

21 (16) All vessels shall be operated at reasonable speeds for given conditions
