Abstract: Increases from $75 to $100 the amount per election paid to deputy custodians of parish voting machines.

Present law authorizes parish custodians of voting machines to appoint deputies to help him with his duties. Places certain limitations on who may qualify to serve as a deputy and ascribes certain duties to the position. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides that a deputy custodian of parish voting machines is to be paid $75 for each election at which he serves. Proposed law increases this amount to $100 for each election at which he serves.
