HB No. 541

Abstract: Provides relative to the 21st Judicial District.

Present law provides that the 21st Judicial District Court shall have nine judges.

Proposed law maintains nine judges in the 21st Judicial District Court by abolishing the judgeship comprising Division H effective midnight, December 31, 2014, or at any earlier time upon such judgeship becoming vacant for any reason and creating a new judgeship effective January 1, 2015, or at any earlier time upon the judgeship in the former Division H becoming vacant.

Proposed law requires that this new judgeship shall preside over Division J and provides that the subject matter for such division limited to family matters as provided by law. The creation of this judgeship shall not affect any other judge of the district.

Present law provides that until December 31, 2014, the judges of the Civil District Court for the parish of Orleans who are in office on July 1, 1979, shall create the Domestic Relations Section of that court, by rule of court adopted on or before December 1, 1979, by the judges sitting en banc. The rule shall designate not less than two incumbent judges who shall be assigned to the Domestic Relations Section in accordance with the rules of the Civil District Court for the parish of Orleans.

Proposed law applies to the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans or to the 41st Judicial District Court, whichever is applicable, and shall supersede to the extent of conflict with any other provision of law.

Proposed law abolishes the judgeship comprising Division B effective midnight, December 31, 2014.

Proposed law creates a new judgeship effective January 1, 2015. This judge and his successors shall preside over Division "BB". The subject matter jurisdiction of Division "BB" shall be limited to family matters as provided by law, including the domestic relations matters set forth in law.

Proposed law abolishes the judgeship comprising Division E effective midnight, December 31, 2014, or at any earlier time upon such judgeship becoming vacant for any reason.

Proposed law creates a new judgeship effective January 1, 2015, or at any earlier time upon the judgeship in the former Division E becoming vacant. This judge and his successors shall preside over Division "EE". The subject matter jurisdiction of Division "EE" shall be limited to family matters as provided by law, including the domestic relations matter set forth in law.

Proposed law repeals certain provisions of present law relative to district courts in the parish of Orleans effective December 31, 2014.

Proposed law provides that the individuals to be elected to the judgeships created in proposed law shall be elected for a six year term at the congressional election held in 2014, and every sixth year thereafter. However, if any of the divisions authorized by proposed law is created earlier than January 1, 2015, the election to such division shall be for a term which shall end December 31, 2014, and for six year terms thereafter.

Proposed law provides that the judges and their successors created by proposed law shall be elected at large and shall have jurisdiction throughout the applicable district.

Proposed law provides that the judges and their successors created by proposed law shall receive the same compensation and expense allowances, payable from the same sources and in the same manner, as are now or may hereafter be provided for other judges of the applicable district. In the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans, or the 41st Judicial District Court, as applicable, the judges and their successors shall have the right to appoint a crier, stenographer, and minute clerk for their own division, who shall perform the same duties and receive the same compensation, payable in the same manner and from the same sources, as similar officials in other divisions of the court.

Proposed law does not reduce the term of office or the jurisdiction of any other judge of the districts affected by proposed law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 13:621.21 and 1138, and Section 1 of Act No. 873 of the 2008 Regular Session of the Legislature; Repeals R.S. 13:1139(A))
