5 provide for related matters.

10 B. Advanced sales tax deposit required. (1)(a) Notwithstanding the 11 provisions of Subsection A or any other provision of this Chapter, every dealer
12 required to collect state sales tax pursuant to this Chapter and having an average 13 monthly state sales and use tax liability of at least twenty thousand dollars for the 14 twelve-month period commencing April 1, 2015, and ending March 30, 2016, shall 15 be required to remit to the secretary on or before April 20, 2016, and on or before the 16 twentieth day of each succeeding month, an advanced sales tax deposit using either 17 of the following methods:

18 (i) Actual Sales Method. A dealer using the actual sales method is required 19 to remit a deposit equal to at least ninety percent of the dealer's sales and use tax

1 liability for the sale or use of tangible personal property for the first through the 2 fifteenth of the current month.

3 (ii) Estimated Sales Method. A dealer using the estimated sales method is 4 required to remit a deposit equal to at least seventy-five percent of the dealer's sales
5 and use tax liability for the sale of tangible personal property for the comparable 6 month of the preceding year. For the purposes of calculating a dealer's estimated 7 sales tax liability for the comparable month of the preceding year, the dealer is not 8 required to include taxes due on sales of tangible personal property refunded or 9 credited to the customer in accordance with R.S. 47:315.

10 (b) For purposes of this Subsection, a dealer shall include any wholesale 11 dealer of tobacco products as defined in R.S. 47:842(23) or any wholesale dealer of 12 alcoholic beverage products as defined in R.S. 26:2(22) or 241(19).

13 (2) Any adjustment necessary to properly report and pay the tax using either 14 the actual sales method or the estimated sales method shall be reported on and paid 15 with the monthly return due on or before the twentieth day of the month following 16 the month in which the advanced sales tax deposit is paid. Any advance sales tax 17 deposit in excess of the actual tax due for a preceding month may be credited or 18 refunded.

19 (3) Deposits required to be made under this Subsection shall be received by 20 the secretary of the Department of Revenue no later than the twentieth day of the 21 month in order to be considered timely. A dealer that fails to comply with the 22 requirements of this Subsection may be assessed a penalty in an amount equal to ten 23 percent of the difference between any amount of the dealer deposits pursuant to this 24 Subsection and the dealer's actual sales tax liability for the month for which the 25 advanced sales tax deposit was required.

26 (4) Deposits made by a dealer under this Subsection shall not be considered 27 to be collected for the purposes of any sales tax refunds or credits required by law 28 until the dealer files a return for the actual sales taxes collected during the month to 29 which the advanced sales tax deposit applies.

Proposed law requires any adjustments necessary for proper reporting and payment of tax collected to be completed with the monthly return due on the 20th day of the month following the month in which the advance sales tax deposit was made.

Proposed law authorizes a credit or refund of any advance sales tax deposit collected in excess of the actual tax due, but prohibits a credit or refund on any advance sales tax deposit prior to the dealer filing the return for the actual sales taxes collected during the month for which the advance sales tax deposit applied.

Proposed law exempts any agency, department, or instrumentality of the U.S. government or any agency, department, institution, instrumentality, or political subdivision of the state.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
