HB 63 Original

2023 Regular Session

Muscarello

Abstract: Provides for the signing of certain orders and documents by the court.

Present law provides that a judge or justice may sign a court order, notice, official court document and other writings by use of electronic signature.

Present law requires various courts to provide the method of electronic signature to be used and ensure the authenticity.

Proposed law deletes the requirement that various courts provide by rule for the method of electronic signature to be used and ensure the authenticity.

(Amends C.C.P. Art. 253(C))
