HB 68 Original 2016 Regular Session Bacala

Abstract: Authorizes the use of electronic signatures on petitions for certain protective orders and restraining orders.

Present law prohibits electronic signatures for laws governing adoption, divorce, or other matters of family law.

Proposed law retains present law but allows electronic signatures for petitions for temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, permanent injunctions, and protective orders.

(Amends R.S. 9:2603(B)(4)(a))
