10 W. Confidentiality of crime victims who are minors and victims of sex 11 offenses.

12 (1)(a) In order to protect the identity and provide for the safety and welfare 13 of crime victims who are minors under the age of eighteen years and of victims of 14 sex offenses, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all public officials 15 and officers and public agencies, including but not limited to all law enforcement
16 agencies, sheriffs, district attorneys, judicial officers, clerks of court, the Crime
17 Victims Reparations Board, and the Department of Social Services or any division 18 thereof, shall not publicly disclose the name, address, or identity of crime victims 19 who at the time of the commission of the offense are minors under eighteen years of 20 age or of victims of sex offenses, regardless of the date of commission of the offense.
21 The confidentiality of the identity of the victim who at the time of the commission
22 of the offense is a minor under eighteen years of age or the victim of a sex offense 23 may be waived by the victim. The public disclosure of the name of the juvenile

1 crime victim by any public official or officer or public agency is not prohibited by 2 this Subsection when the crime resulted in the death of the victim.

3 (b) In order to protect the identity and provide for the safety and welfare of 4 crime victims who are under the age of eighteen years and of victims of sex offenses, 5 notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, an attorney for any party shall 6 be prohibited from publicly disclosing, except during trial, the name, address, or 7 identity of crime victims who at the time of the commission of the offense are under 8 eighteen years of age or are victims of sex offenses, regardless of the date of 9 commission of the offense. An attorney may lawfully utilize initials, abbreviations, 10 or other forms of indefinite descriptions on documents used in the performance of 11 his duties to prevent the public disclosure of the name, address, or identity of such 12 crime victims. If the name, address, or identity of such a crime victim must be 13 disclosed in a motion or pleading, that motion or pleading shall be filed with the 14 court requesting that it be kept under seal. Failure to comply with the provisions of 15 this Subparagraph shall be punishable as contempt of court.

16 ~~(b)~~(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of ~~Subparagraph~~ Subparagraphs (a) 17 and (b) of this Paragraph, all information regarding juvenile crime victims that is 18 required by a child abduction alert system which assists law enforcement in the 19 successful resolution of child abduction cases, such as the AMBER Alert network, 20 shall be made available to such alert system as quickly as possible.
