

Regular Session, 2014

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 172

BY REPRESENTATIVE BURFORD

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To commend Councilman Curtis L. McCune upon his retirement after forty-two years of public service.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate to commend Curtis L. McCune upon his retirement as a council member for the town of Stonewall and to recognize him for his unwavering dedication to public service; and

WHEREAS, Curtis L. McCune attended Stonewall High School and graduated from Louisiana College, where he majored in chemistry; and

WHEREAS, Curtis L. McCune completed his graduate studies at Tulane University, and he also attended numerous technical and managerial courses; and

WHEREAS, Curtis L. McCune worked for Thiokol Corporation for thirty-five years of highly productive service, producing rocket motors and munitions for the United States Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, at Thiokol Corporation, Mr. McCune started out as a junior chemist and was eventually promoted to chemist, chemical engineer, research chemist, chief chemist, and quality director; and

WHEREAS, upon his retirement, Curtis L. McCune was the director of all quality engineering and testing for the Longhorn Division of Thiokol Corporation; and

WHEREAS, for thirty-six years, Curtis L. McCune served with great distinction as mayor of the town of Stonewall; and

WHEREAS, upon his retirement from the position of mayor, Mr. McCune was elected council member for the town of Stonewall; and

WHEREAS, Curtis L. McCune is officially retiring from the Town of Stonewall, and June 10, 2014, will be his final meeting as a member of the town council; and

WHEREAS, before serving as mayor, Mr. McCune spent two years as road commissioner and devoted three years of his life to the service of his country; and

WHEREAS, over the years, much of Mr. McCune's time has been spent serving with great distinction on local, parish, and regional committees; and

WHEREAS, Curtis L. McCune is a loving husband to his wife of sixty-two years, Nancy McCune, and a devoted father and grandfather to his four children, nine grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Curtis L. McCune merits a special measure of commendation for the tremendous pride and honor that he brings to his family, friends, and community, the town of Stonewall, and the state of Louisiana.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend Curtis L. McCune upon his retirement from forty-two years of public service, including four years as a council member and thirty-six years as the mayor of Stonewall, does hereby recognize and record for posterity his outstanding accomplishments and manifold contributions to his community, and does hereby extend best wishes for his continued success and happiness in the years to come.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Curtis L. McCune.

---

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

---

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE