A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To express sincere and heartfelt condolences on the death of Scott Overton Brame.

WHEREAS, it is with heavy hearts that the members of the Legislature of Louisiana have learned of the death on March 31, 2019, of Scott Overton Brame, at the age of ninety; and

WHEREAS, born in Alexandria to Frank T. Brame, Sr., and Kate Murphy Brame, Scott was the beloved brother of Catherine Noami Brame and Frank T. Brame, Jr.; he graduated from Bolton High School and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in accounting from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge; he proudly served his country in the Korean War; and

WHEREAS, he was known for his tireless work at the Central Louisiana Electric Company (Cleco), where he began as an "unclassified trainee" in 1949 and worked his way up to president, chief executive officer, director, and ultimately chairman of the board; Scott retired in 1993 after over four decades of service and remained active with his family, his church, community organizations, and the various boards on which he served; and

WHEREAS, Scott Overton Brame was a prominent Central Louisiana business leader; in 2009, the Rotary Club of Alexandria presented him with its "Service Above Self" award; the following year, the Rodemacher Power Station was renamed the Brame Energy Center in his honor; and

WHEREAS, another source of pride for Mr. Brame was his contribution to the formation of the Working Peoples Free Clinic in Alexandria, now known as Community Healthworx, over two decades ago; as one of seven members of the Louisiana Free Clinic Association, Community Healthworx is a non-profit organization that promotes health and wellness by providing quality services at no charge to people without access to basic health care; and

WHEREAS, ever active in his community, Mr. Brame served as a board member and the chairman and president of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Louisiana, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana, Catholic Foundation of North Central Louisiana, Council for a Better Louisiana, Family Counseling Agency, Friends of Bringham, Handiwork Productions, Incorporated, Louisiana State University at Alexandria Foundation, Menard High School, Rapides Parish Civil Service, Rehabilitation Center of Central Louisiana, Security First National Bank, St. Frances Cabrini Hospital, and United Way of Central Louisiana; he was a board member of Central Louisiana Community Foundation, Coughlin Saunders Foundation, Louisiana Board of Regents, Louisiana Charities Trust, Rotary Club of Alexandria, and St. Mary's Children's Home; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brame was named the 2011 Cenla-ian by Cenla Focus magazine and a panel of community leaders, an award presented to individuals who exemplify noteworthy leadership qualities and who "give back" to Central Louisiana; Cleco established the Scott Brame endowed chair in finance at Louisiana State University at Alexandria; and

WHEREAS, Scott Overton Brame is survived by his loving wife of sixty-three years, Mary Ann Kelley; his children, Catherine Garvey Brame, Grady Kelley Brame, Sr., and his wife Kellie, Scott Miller Brame, Ann Brame Silver, and her husband Ted, Michael Murphy Brame, Sr., and Jack Overton Brame, and his wife Jena; and his grandchildren, Emily Silver Weeks, and her husband Robert, Michael Louis Silver, Grady Kelley Brame, Jr., Kate Silver Laborde, and her husband Matthew, Scott Thomas Brame, Murphy Margaret Brame, Michael Murphy Brame, Jr., Morgan Mckenzie Brame, and Maryann Kelley Brame; great grandchildren, Weiss Kirkland Weeks, Wells Kristopher Weeks, Wick Kelley Weeks, and Mary Miller Weeks; and

WHEREAS, the death of Scott Overton Brame has left an abiding void in the legion of people whose lives he graciously touched, and he will be truly missed by those with whom he shared his enthusiasm, his resources, and his hard work to improve his community.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby extend the sincerest condolences on the death of Scott Overton Brame; does hereby acknowledge the contributions he made in his lifetime to the many facets of his community in Alexandria; and does hereby express best thoughts and prayers for comfort and peace to family and friends.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the family of Scott Overton Brame.
