

2017 Regular Session

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 93

BY REPRESENTATIVE FALCONER

A RESOLUTION

To commend the Louisiana Psychological Association and to recognize Monday, May 8, 2017, as Psychology Day at the state capitol.

WHEREAS, psychology is a diverse discipline, grounded in science, with numerous applications in everyday life; and

WHEREAS, practicing psychologists have the professional training and clinical skills to help people learn to cope more effectively with life issues and mental health problems; and

WHEREAS, psychologists advance the creation, communication, evaluation, and application of psychological knowledge to benefit society and to improve the lives of their patients and clients; and

WHEREAS, psychologists study normal and abnormal behavior and treat individuals with mental and emotional problems; and

WHEREAS, psychologists study and encourage behaviors that build wellness and emotional resilience; and

WHEREAS, practicing psychologists can help with a range of health problems and use an assortment of evidence-based treatments to help people improve their lives; and

WHEREAS, the Louisiana Psychological Association, as the state professional association representing psychologists in all practice, research, and academic settings, works to further the development of psychology as a science, as an applied practice, and as a means of promoting human welfare; and

WHEREAS, currently, more than seven hundred fifty licensed psychologists practice in this state to serve the people of Louisiana; and

WHEREAS, in May, the Louisiana Psychological Association will host its annual convention with an emphasis in 2017 on the support that psychology affords patients and clients of all ages and in all stages of life.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend the Louisiana Psychological Association and does hereby recognize Monday, May 8, 2017, as Psychology Day at the state capitol.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Lucinda DeGrange, Ph.D., president of the Louisiana Psychology Association, and Cindy Bishop, executive director.
