DIGEST

Gallot (SB 106)

Present law provides for a monthly allowance of $500 for members of the legislature for payment of rent for office space for their legislative offices.

Proposed law retains present law and directs the commissioner of administration to implement and maintain a procedure wherein, at no cost to a legislator, surplus space in immovable properties owned by the state can be utilized for the purpose of establishing a legislative office within the legislator's district.

Effective August 1, 2012.
