Bill Information

Current Law

Current law allows certain eligible distributions to be directly rolled over to an eligible retirement plan specified by the recipient of the distribution (the distributee). An eligible retirement plan is:

- 1) An individual retirement account (IRC Section 408(a)).
- 2) An individual retirement annuity (IRC Section 408(b)).
- 3) A qualified trust (IRC Section 401(a)).

Furthermore, the rollover is restricted to an individual retirement account or annuity if the distributee is a surviving spouse.

Proposed Law

SB 11 provides that a non-spouse beneficiary is also a distributee and an inherited individual retirement account (IRC Section 402(c)(11)) is an eligible retirement plan. Furthermore, the rollover is restricted to the inherited individual retirement account if the distributee is a non-spouse beneficiary.

Implications of the Proposed Changes

SB 11 adds rollover language required by the Internal Revenue Code and will have no effect on the benefits payable from the plan.
