DIGEST 2020 Regular Session

SB 134 Original

Womack

Present law provides that an applicant for a driver's license who needs accommodation, shall have a designation that the applicant needs accommodation on the applicant's driver's license, upon the applicant providing a statement from a qualified medical professional verifying a medical reason, including any mental, physical, or developmental disability.

Proposed law retains present law and adds any health condition that may impede the applicant's ability to communicate with a peace officer as a medical reason.

Effective August 1, 2020.
